

IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

JAMES CLIFFORD, )

Plaintiff, )

24-5193

Carla Walker, et al., )

Defendants. )

Petition for Rehearing

Now comes the Plaintiff James Clifford respectfully your Honor, in accordance with Rule 44 of the Supreme Court.

Due to the fact that the defendant Carla Walker committed perjury in her deposition and in the HUD complaint investigation, which in turn led the lower courts to rely on her false statements and the lower courts decisions based on those lies.

Judge Fenner allowed the defense to change the integrity of the case with a delay of 56 days in which a default judgment should have been granted to the plaintiff.

Although the Plaintiff is not an attorney or lawyer, the rules of procedure were followed from the very beginning and presently by the plaintiff.

The Plaintiff James Clifford seeks that this case should be remanded to the lower courts with the opportunity to have his case heard in front of a jury of his peers, which was denied by Judge Fenner when asked for.

The fact remains that the judge relied on her perjury and the defense's Summary Judgment to grant that summary judgment, which shows procedural bias by Judge Fenner.

If the plaintiff has proven his case in a timely manner; so should the defense prove their case in a timely manner from the date that the complaint was filed.

I James Clifford respectfully ask that you would take this into consideration thank you your honor,

James Clifford
