STATEMENT OF THE CASE

January 1, 2021 I the defendant Mr. Bruce K. Florence<sup>III</sup> a handicapped man made a phone call to "911 emergency" and requested for backup saying "I am Undercover FWC."

About 20 min later the police showed up at my house and arrested me for falsely assuming a police officer. The "True intent" of the phone call was to call for help. There is no witness or victim in this case. With no criminal intent No victim, no witness, no evidence acquired.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Justice would be severed to a handicap man.

The True nature of the "911 emergency" phone call" was to get back up I was being attacked at a friends house. I should have not spent 6 months in jail when I really do work for the police chief part time on his properties, My rights were violated and I believe this ~~right~~ wrong should be made right.

This case is entirely unconstitutional. The arrest made was a false arrest. No physical evidence exists. police uniform, badge, indicia, T-shirt, police equipment.

According to the Florida Supreme Court rulings for 843.08.

Furthermore, My motions were never sent to the right Judge, denying me due process.

Robert A Spottswood 412 Floral Ave Key West, FL 33040
305-294-9556 my previous employer "Keystar Inc."

Florida Rule 3.380 Judgment of Acquittal.

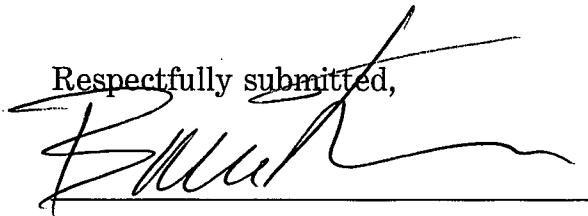

No crime was committed!

There was no criminal intent in this case and it should be thrown out.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
