Re: Kevin Herriott v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2024-000429 & 2024-000376

Dear Mr. Herriott:

This will acknowledge your Notice of Appeal and Petition for Reconsideration in the above cases which was received in this office on June 17, 2024.

Pursuant to Rule 221, SCACR, no petition for rehearing (or reconsideration) is allowed from an order declining to entertain a matter under Rule 245. Accordingly, this case ended on May 21, 2024, and no action will be taken on your petition.

Sincerely,

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Kevin Herriott, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

ORDER

On March 4, 2024, Appellant filed a motion to compel, asking for this court to issue an order requiring his former lawyers to "surrender the case/work file, the two (2) created in representing the Appellant" to him. Appellant explained he intends to use the materials to request leave to supplement the record on appeal. After careful consideration, we deny Appellant's motion to compel.

On March 15, 2024, Appellant moved to hold this appeal in abeyance pending a ruling from the South Carolina Supreme Court on his petition for a writ of mandamus. Appellant explained his petition for writ of mandamus relates to this court's consideration of his appeal. After careful consideration, we grant Appellant's motion to hold the appeal in abeyance pending the supreme court's ruling on his petition for writ of mandamus. Appellant must provide this court with an update on the status of the pending petition for writ of mandamus within thirty days of the date of this order and every thirty days thereafter.

Re: The State v. Kevin Herriott
Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

Dear Mr. Herriott:

The Court has received your recent correspondence titled Appellant's Written Objections that appears to be an attempt to rehear the Court's order dated April 30, 2024. Pursuant to Rule 221(c), SCACR, no further action will be taken on this filing.

According to our records, the South Carolina Supreme Court has dismissed your petition for writ of mandamus. Our Court will now continue with consideration of your records and briefs.

Very truly yours,

Re : Criminal Case File for
THE STATE vs. KEVIN HERRIOTT
Case No.: 31-MC-002131
18-GS-31-0120

Dear Attorneys :

This letter is to inform you that I am seeking to obtain from you my ENTIRE Case/Work File where you represented me in the above referenced action. At this time I am hereby asking that you or your office forward to me the ENTIRE Case/Work File in your possession.

LEGAL MAIL ONLY

to include but not limited to all discovery materials, pretrial motions, responses, and orders. (see attach).

I have a Constitutional right to receive my case/work file under the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution. Accord Sixth Amend., U.S. CONST., see also Spivey v. Zant, 683 F. 2d 881, 882 (5th Cir. 1982) (Habeas Corpus petitioner is entitled to former trial attorneys file and the work product doctrine does not apply to situations in which the client seeks access to documents or other tangible things created during course of attorneys representation.)

Nevertheless, neither you nor your office currently represent me; however, I plan to pursue a Federal Habeas Corpus petition attacking the constitutionality of the conviction and/or sentence. As you are aware, a motion under § 2254 has a statutory limitation of one year.

Hopefully, you will act consistent with the American Bar Associations Standards and refrain from impeding my right to challenge the constitutionality of my conviction and/or sentence. That said, I'm requesting you forward the case/work file to me within the allotted timetable of thirty (30) days.

Please forward the case/work file to me in large envelopes addressed to me and CLEARLY MARKED as Legal Mail, OPEN ONLY IN PRESENCE OF THE INMATE, at McCormick Correctional Institution, 386 Redemption Way, McCormick, South Carolina, 29899.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter.

Dear Mr. Herriott:

I am in receipt of your letter dated October 23, 2020 where you asked for me to send you your case file.

I have enclosed the contents of my file, up to the point of when I was relieved as your attorney.

As you may remember, I was relieved by the Court as your counsel in March of 2019. At that time, the Judge relieved me and Timothy Griffith was appointed as your attorney.

At that time, I gave your file to Mr. Griffith and he carried on with your representation. Therefore, there could be other information about your case in Mr. Griffith's file that you may want. His contact information is:

Re: The State v. Kevin Herriott
Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

Dear Mr. Herriott:

Upon reviewing your record on appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, or your appeal will be dismissed:

- The document is improperly paginated. Specifically, the pages of your record on appeal are not sequentially numbered.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,

V Claire Allen

v.

Kevin Herriott, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

ORDER

After careful consideration, Respondent's motion to strike is granted. Within twenty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall file a final Appellant's brief that complies with Rule 211(b), SCACR, which requires that the final brief be identical to the initial brief, other than (1) the references should be revised to include citations to the record on appeal; and (2) the party may correct typographical errors. To the extent Appellant wants to attach materials to his final brief that were not included in the record on appeal, Appellant must make a motion to amend the record on appeal and only content that complies with Rule 210(c), SCACR will be permitted to be included.

Re: The State v. Kevin E. Herriott
Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The State received a copy of Appellant's Motion for Leave to Hold Case in Abeyance and filing labeled Objections. Please accept this letter in lieu of a formal return. The State does not believe there is any reason to hold the appeal in abeyance nor to allow deviation from Rule 211, SCACR, pursuant to his objections. The State received a copy of a new Final Brief of Appellant on October 25, 2022. The State is currently reviewing the new Final Brief of Appellant to determine whether it complies with Rule 211, SCACR or whether a subsequent motion to strike is warranted.

Sincerely,

William M. Blitch, Jr.

Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

ORDER

Appellant's motion for an extension of time to serve and file a reply brief is granted. He must file any reply brief within ten days of the date of this order.

Appellant's motion for reconsideration of this court's October 6, 2022 order granting Respondent's motion to strike is denied. See Rule 240(i) ("The court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal."). Appellant's motion to hold this appeal in abeyance is denied.

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Kevin Herriott, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

ORDER

Appellant filed a motion seeking to relieve counsel and proceed pro se. On February 1, 2020, this court warned Appellant of the dangers and disadvantages of self-representation pursuant to Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806 (1975). Appellant has now responded, noting he voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently wishes to waive the right to counsel. Accordingly, the request to relieve counsel is granted. Attorney Laura Mary Caudy is hereby relieved as counsel for Appellant, and Appellant shall proceed pro se.
