Reason No. 2 for granting the Petitioner's In Forma Pauperis Declaration:

On or about 7-2023, the Petitioner got his Stimulus Check of a little over $1300.00.

At the time before the Petitioner Grady received his refund, he had already appealed this case to the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals in Atlanta GA. At the time I filed the appeal I thought the Court had granted me the In Forma Pauperis because I filed two appeals at the same time, I was granted In Forma Pauperis to file to the Parole Board, but was not granted to file to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

At that time I had to pay $505.00 filing fee. When I found out, I reached out to my wife and family and we could not come up with the money, but by the grace of God about two or three (3) weeks later I received my stimulus refund. The first thing I did was send the $505.00 to the Courts, what good did that do? The Court still denied my appeal saying they don't make rulings on default judgment. I didn't have the money then before my refund, and I still don't have it now.

That was $505.00 that was throwed away, Thought I was using it in good cause and good faith.

That Stimulus Check was the only way I could pay the filing fee, that was money wasted.

I ask this Court to grant the Petitioner's In Form Pauperis So he can proceed in his appeal.
