This case involves denial of Whistle-blower Protections and subsequent retaliation as far back as 2002. Though I participated in a program of vocational rehabilitation post retirement, the program failed, and I have been unable to acquire and maintain suitable long-term employment. Due to the failure of my program, I requested re-entrance into the program, but my appeal was denied through the Board of Veterans' Appeals (BVA). Appeal was filed May 26, 2020, and after more than 4 years, the appeal was denied June 17, 2024. The BVA denial was issued just 12 days after the 5th Circuit's denial of my en banc petition, June 5, 2024. So retaliation persists due to denial of those protections. I have attached related documents for the court's review.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
