Re: Mark E. Brown v. Unified School District No. 501, No. 24-5518
 (10th Cir. # 23-3253); Requesting additional time to respond.

Dear Clerk,

Pursuant to Sup. C. R. 30.4, the Respondent Unified School District No. 501 respectfully requests an extension of time to file a response in opposition to Mark E. Brown's Petition for Writ of Certiorari received by this court on September 11, 2024. Respondent's response is due on October 11, 2024. Respondent respectfully requests an extension of thirty (30) days to respond. Respondent needs the additional time because it is waiting on its counsel's admission to the U.S. Supreme Court Bar. The undersigned sent an application via United States Mail about one week ago, and she has not received correspondence indicating that she has been admitted. If the undersigned does not realize admittance, Respondent needs additional time to find counsel who is admitted. Additional time is also needed to prepare a brief in opposition due to counsel having multiple trials and hearings in other matters.

This request is timely, and it is not being made to delay proceedings or in bad faith.

Respectfully,

HENSON, HUTTON, MUDRICK,
 GRAGSON & VOGELSBERG, LLP
