v.

Calvin Carnell Edwards, Jr.

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa - Central

Submitted: April 8, 2024

Filed: May 9, 2024

[Unpublished]

Before SMITH, WOLLMAN, and GRASZ, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Calvin Carnell Edwards, Jr., pleaded guilty to being a felon in possession of a firearm, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(8), and to illegally possessing a machine gun, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(o) and 924(a)(2). The district court¹ sentenced Edwards to 84 months' imprisonment, a sentence within the advisory U.S. Sentencing Guidelines range. Edwards appeals, challenging the decisions to increase his base offense level by four for possessing a firearm in connection with another felony offense, U.S.S.G. § 2K2.1(b)(6)(B), and to deny the two-level reduction for accepting responsibility, U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(a). We affirm.

C.T. called 911 on August 31, 2022, to report a domestic assault. When the Des Moines, Iowa, police officers arrived at her apartment complex, C.T. was holding her toddler and waiting in her car in the nearby parking lot. She had left her apartment because Edwards had kicked in the door and she could no longer secure it. C.T. told officers that Edwards had “smacked [her] around,” pointed a gun at her, and chambered a round. C.T. described the firearm as a Glock with a switch.

Officers located Edwards shortly thereafter and removed the gun that he said was tucked into his waistband. The firearm was a Glock, model 22, .40 caliber pistol that had a round in the chamber and fourteen rounds in the magazine. The pistol had an automatic selector switch attached to the rear slide, which converted the pistol into a fully automatic firearm.

While incarcerated, Edwards was involved in seven physical altercations among inmates, some of which resulted in injury. He sexually harassed a nurse, asking if she wanted to see his penis, and returned to the examination room with his hand down his pants after his medical appointment had ended. Edwards also wrongfully used several inmates' accounts to make phone calls, lied about doing so, made derogatory comments to a correctional officer, and conspired with another inmate to submit a false Prison Rape Elimination Act report.

¹The Honorable Stephanie M. Rose, Chief Judge, United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa.

We conclude that the district court correctly applied the offense-level increase for possessing a firearm “in connection with another felony offense.” U.S.S.G. § 2K2.1(b)(6)(B). The commentary defines felony offense as an offense “punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year.” U.S.S.G. § 2K2.1 cmt. n.14(C). Edwards committed the offense of displaying a dangerous weapon in connection with an assault, an aggravated misdemeanor under Iowa law. Iowa Code § 708.2(3). The offense is punishable by a term of imprisonment not to exceed two years, however. Iowa Code § 903.1(2). “A crime designated as an aggravated misdemeanor under Iowa law falls within the Guidelines definition of felony offense.” United States v. Holm, 745 F.3d 938, 941 (8th Cir. 2014); see United States v. Miller, 11 F.4th 944, 951 (8th Cir. 2021); United States v. Anderson, 339 F.3d 720, 724 (8th Cir. 2003).

The district court likewise did not err in denying Edwards the offense-level reduction for “clearly demonstrat[ing] acceptance of responsibility for his offense.” U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(a). Although Edwards disclosed his firearm when arrested and promptly entered a guilty plea, he did not thereafter terminate his criminal conduct or engage in rehabilitative efforts. See U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1 cmt. n.1(B) and (G). “[W]e have consistently affirmed denials of this reduction to defendants whose conduct belies their claims of contrition, even where that conduct was unrelated to the underlying offense and committed in jail while awaiting sentencing.” United States v. Chappell, 69 F.4th 492, 494 (8th Cir. 2023) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).

We also conclude that the district court did not commit procedural error by declining to apply Kisor v. Wilkie, 139 S. Ct. 2400 (2019), to decide whether the Guidelines commentary remains authoritative. See Stinson v. United States, 508 U.S. 36, 38 (1993); United States v. Mendoza-Figueroa, 65 F.3d 691, 692 (8th Cir. 1995)

(en banc); United States v. Rivera, 76 F.4th 1085, 1089–91 (8th Cir. 2023); United States v. Cooper, 998 F.3d 806, 810 (8th Cir. 2021); see also United States v. Sewalson, 36 F.4th 832, 834 (8th Cir. 2022).

The judgment is affirmed.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

Three years as to Counts One and Two of the Superseding Indictment filed on January 19, 2023, to be served concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Calvin Carnell Edwards, Jr.
CASE NUMBER: 4:22-cr-00162-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

You must participate in a program of testing and/or treatment for substance abuse, as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Office. At the direction of the probation office, you must receive a substance abuse evaluation and participate in inpatient and/or outpatient treatment, as recommended. Participation may also include compliance with a medication regimen. You will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment. You must not use alcohol and/or other intoxicants during the course of supervision.

You must participate in an approved treatment program for anger control. Participation may include inpatient/outpatient treatment. You will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

You must submit to a mental health evaluation. If treatment is recommended, you must participate in an approved treatment program and abide by all supplemental conditions of treatment. Participation may include inpatient/outpatient treatment and/or compliance with a medication regimen. You will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

You shall not knowingly associate or communicate with any active member of any criminal street gang.

You will submit to a search of your person, property, residence, adjacent structures, office, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), and other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. You must warn any other residents or occupants that the premises and/or vehicle may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of your release and/or that the area(s) or item(s) to be searched contain evidence of this violation or contain contraband. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the U.S. Marshals Service.
