Questions Presented

1. There was a violation of the Family and Medical leave Act due to the fact that my employment was terminated without a valid or legal reason.
2. There was also a violation of my civil rights based on my age - (49 y/o) and equal employment opportunity.
3. The defendants terminated my employment unfairly and capriciously and arbitrarily without any kind of consideration in terms of my medical condition related to coronavirus symptoms.

IN THE

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The defendants in question failed to provide me with Equal Employment Opportunity in violation of my civil rights based on my age, 69 years old. My employment was terminated by the defendants in question capriciously and arbitrarily without any valid and legal reason. When I called in sick due to Corona Virus symptoms I was told that since I was on probation that I could not take any time off and I was threatened by the defendants in question in that if I did not return to work my employment will be terminated and I was forced to return to work when I was suffering from very serious symptoms of the Corona Virus. There was harassment also on the part of the defendant CEO Doris Colon who asked me if I had mental health issues which was very offensive and a violation of my civil rights based on my age (69 years old) and in violation of the Family and Medical Act which protect me from employment termination.
