Supreme Court of the United States

Patrick Michael Hackett v. Iowa

On motion to proceed in forma pauperis with or without fees paid

NOW COMES PATRICK MICHAEL HACKETT,

An American-born with no criminal history, having completed Air Force bootcamp in 2016, with numerous ground-breaking records of service to the 48 Continental United States, and finally with little but family, memories, and aspirations to cherish doth hereby request waiver of filing fees, though regardless applicability to proceed in forma pauperis format, offering ongoing matters of public safety as Considerable Exemption Status from Form 4 in this simple misdemeanor traffic infraction, for the court's consideration, albeit Form 4 attached for consideration. Fees paid or not, the format of in forma pauperis is paramount; Petitioner already offered specifically life itself in these specific gatherings, another $300 or format discrepancies shouldn't make or break truth reigning supreme regarding this specific matter of ongoing public safety.

In memory of Jakai Govan,

Under penalty of perjury everything submitted herein is true and correct, 11/20/2024.

Pro se, Patrick Hackett

9. Do you expect any major changes to your monthly income or expenses or in your assets or liabilities during the next 12 months?

[] Yes No If yes, describe on an attached sheet.

10. Have you spent — or will you be spending — any money for expenses or attorney fees in connection with this lawsuit? [] Yes No

If yes, how much? $ none

11. Provide any other information that will help explain why you cannot pay the docket fees for your appeal.

While I live with my folks, work hard, have few expenses, no dependents or significant other, and have money saved, I find the simple filing format of forma pauperis under rule 33.2 paramount, due to the inherent strict, crippling format demands of the only alternative, rule 33.1.

Petitioner Hackett suggests to expeditiously consider these matters of public safety with a third filing alternative: textual format of forma pauperis with or without the filing fees.

To promote transparency I suggest making this filing option a permanent rule alternative.

Or simply consider my savings hard-earned, my matter meriting review, and a waiver of fees applicable;

I've already offered my life in the specific bringing of this appeal, another $300 or format discrepancies shouldn't make or break letting the truth reign supreme.
