Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 2:22-CR-95-1

Before KING, SOUTHWICK, and ENGELHARDT, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Jason Campion pleaded guilty to possession with intent to distribute fentanyl, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C), and he was sentenced to 151 months of imprisonment. His sentence reflected the district court's application of a career offender enhancement, pursuant to

No. 23-10732

U.S.S.G. § 4B1.1, based upon Campion having been convicted of at least two prior offenses which qualified as controlled substance offenses.

On appeal, Campion contends that the district court erred in designating him as a career offender based on his 2017 Delaware conviction for the offense of possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance. Given that Campion did not object to his sentence on this ground in the district court, our review is for plain error. See United States v. Huerra, 884 F.3d 511, 519 (5th Cir. 2018).

Even if we were to assume that the Delaware statute at issue was overbroad because it included substances which were not covered by the Controlled Substances Act, Campion’s claim fails. Campion had to show “a realistic probability, not a theoretical possibility, that the State would apply its statute to conduct that falls outside the generic definition of the crime.” United States v. Castillo-Rivera, 853 F.3d 218, 222 (5th Cir. 2017) (en banc) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). Campion did not meet that test.

Accordingly, the judgement of the district court is AFFIRMED.

The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that the defendant has notified the person about the risk.
13. The defendant shall follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

Also, as set forth in the Notice of Intent to Impose Conditions of Supervised Release signed and dated July 11, 2023, the Defendant shall comply with the below-listed other conditions of supervised release, which are derived from Sections 5D1.3(a), (b), (d), and (e), in relevant part:

4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and submit to one drug test within 15 days of release on supervised release and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter (as determined by the court) for use of a controlled substance, but the condition stated in this paragraph may be ameliorated or suspended by the court for any individual defendant if the defendant's presentence report or other reliable information indicates a low risk of future substance abuse by the defendant (see 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d)).
5. If a fine is imposed and has not been paid upon release to supervised release, the defendant shall adhere to an installment schedule to pay that fine (see 18 U.S.C. § 3624(e)).

FINE/RESTITUTION

The Court does not order a fine or costs of incarceration because the defendant does not have the financial resources or future earning capacity to pay a fine or costs of incarceration.

Restitution is not ordered because there is no victim other than society at large.
