Re: Request for Extension of Time to File a Response a Petition in Manuelian v. Jennifer Starr, Individually and in Her Official Capacity as Trustee of the Laura Kirkland Trust dated 3/10/05 and in the Capacity as Trustee of the Starr Trust, et al.; Case No. 24-647

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel for Respondent in this matter. Petitioner filed his petition for writ of certiorari on December 11, 2024. Respondent was granted an extension of 30 days, up to and including February 12, 2025, to file her response to the petition.

The undersigned learned today that he will be admitted via written motion to the United States Supreme Court Bar on February 24, 2026. Respondent therefore requests a short extension of time of up to and including February 26, 2025 to file her response in this matter.

Respectfully,

Gunster, Yoakley & Stewart, P.A.

Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1,000, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our Service Guide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.
