Constitutional and Provisions Involved
23-cv-503

1. Due process
2. Notice Clause
3. Title 28 United States Code 1915
4. Informa Paupris Status

Statement of Case
23-cv-503

This stems from an unnecessary delay that was done by the appeal courts. All the paperwork was in the second circuit in which the appeals court had waited until Lawrence Joseph Vilardo had "revoked" the informa paupris to where it is being claimed as moot.

The petitioner had been having a hard time being granted informa paupris for this case since the district judge Lawrence Joseph Vilardo doesn't have any other way to dismiss the case but to "revoke" the informa paupris in which didn't even get a notice of such.

The only thing that should be done is to have the second circuit have a ruling on the merits then to render it moot because of the unnecessary delays.

Reasons to grant Writ
23-cv-503

Do to the unnecessary delay in proceeding in the appeal by the second circuit but process was violated because of not being informed properly.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: January 29, 2025
