PETITION FOR REHEARING
[COURT RULES, RULE 44]

I. PREAMBLE

Affiant petitioner applicant hereby pursuant to Rule 44.1, Rule 44.2 bearing mandate attachment certification in good faith on grounds that is to intervening circumstance of a substantial with controlling effect substantial ground that is not previously presented (See, e.g., APPENDIX-P, JUNE-4TH APPLICATION) for the petition to rehearing an order denying affiant petitioner applicant entitled mandamus order entered dated 05-19-2025 in secrecy and ethical breaches evident "Star Chamber" practice before the Court (APPENDIX-O):

1. First Intervening Circumstances. Before the Court, there are two (2) principal statutes governs federal judiciary recusal are 28 U.S.C. §144, "Bias or prejudice of judge," and 28 U.S.C. §455, "Disqualification of justice, judge, or magistrate." or known as recusal statutes. Procedure wise 28 U.S.C. §144 is triggered by movant affidavit, and 28 U.S.C. §455 not only invoked by motion but mandates subject justice and or justices to recuse sua sponte, whereat its specifically subsection 455(b)(4) requires disqualification that subject justice and or justices knows that he, individually or as fiduciary has financial and or interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party by the outcome proceeding.

2. Second Controlling Legal Error. Party to, attorney in, or other substantial interest in proceeding under subsection 455(b)(5)(i), that subject justice and or justices shall disqualify himself where "he or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such person ... is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party". Tenth Circuit held its trial judge should have recuse himself on the habeas claim challenging his uncle had participated as a criminal appeals judge<sup>1</sup>. Subsection 455(b)(5)(iii) mandates that a judge must disqualify himself "where he or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them or the spouse of such a person ... is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding." Fifth Circuit holding recusal requirement where a relative of the subject justice and or justices is a partner in a law firms is related to a judge within the third degree<sup>2</sup>;

<sup>1</sup> Harris vs. Champion, 15 F.3d 1538, 1571 (10th Cir. 1994) although the judges uncle had died by the time the judge was assigned to these cases, his uncle is, nonetheless, a named party in this action. Therefore, recusal under 455(b) was required.

<sup>2</sup> Potashnick vs. Port City Construction Co., 609 F. 2d 1101 (5th Cir.1980) hold when a partner in a law firm is related to a judge within the third degree, that partner will always be known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of a proceeding involving the partners law firm.

also see e.g., "Justice O'Connor's" recusal practices regarding telecommunications cases, "a justice duty is to the Court and its works. When investments conflict with that duty, they must go."<sup>3,4,5,6,7</sup>

3. Contrary incoherent clear error controlling legal error the Court denying affiant petitioner applicant entitled mandamus order dated 05-19-2025 entered in secrecy and ethical breaches evident "Star Chamber" practice (APPENDIX-O) which lacking the justices disclosure financial conflict rules unwillingness prioritize ethics over participation to recusal, which apparent in pattern the justice, and or justices whomever may be in an effort attempting avoidance, diffusing, to triggering the exposing Court scandalous "Justice Thomas" and "Justice Alitos" allegation public controversy judicial misconduct proceeding that is pending before the Court none conformity 455(b)(4), 455(b)(5)(i), 455(b)(5)(iii) mandate recusal. Therefore, the order (APPENDIX-O) entered on the 05-19-2025 denying affiant petitioner applicant extraordinary petition mandamus entered before the Court should be subject matter nullities due vacate to removal.
