In the Supreme Court of the United States of America

Gayle George, Petitioner, v. US Bank National Association as legal title trustee for Truman 2016 SC6 title trust allegedly represented by BWW Law Group Respondent.	No. Declaration in Support of Motion for Leave to Proceed without filing fees.

Peculiar Emergency

Relator petitions this court of equity for emergency leave to proceed without paying filing fees to review its Petition for Writ of Certiorari for the following reasons:

Relator was forcibly removed from her home and private shelter of 18 years by the coordinated actions of parties enforcing an unlawful judgment issued by the DC Superior Court for which Relator was denied a judicial review from the DC Court of Appeals. This leaves Relator exposed and endangered daily without basic shelter or adequate remedy at law to redress her grievances.

Relator has been further impoverished by the unlawful taking of private non-commercial, non-agricultural, non-industrial property at the behest of a party which remains in default in an in rem Bill Quia Timet action in equity to quiet title, remove clouds, preserve equitable interest, and prevent irreparable harm, pending before the US District Court of the District of Columbia since May of 2024.

Public Importance

Respondents' collusive activity with the DC court system frustrates the legislative intent of the District's commitment to prevent homelessness in § 4-771.01 of the DC Code on Public Care Systems, undermines its creation of an Interagency Council on Homelessness in § 4-752.03 Chapter 7A Subchapter II, and directly violates public policy on homelessness prevention articulated in federal statutes under Title 42 of the US Code identified as (42 USC §11301, 42 USC §11311, 42 USC § 3531).

The first amendment to the US Constitution guarantees the right of the people to redress grievances with the government. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

The fourteenth amendment due process and equal protection clauses inform the DOJ's Office of Access to Justice declaration that "The Constitution prohibits punishing a person for poverty,"

While the Supreme Court has not ruled that all court fees are unconstitutional, in Bearden v. Georgia (1983) it determined the imposition of fees without consideration of ability to pay is unconstitutional. In Boddie v. Connecticut (1971), it established access to the courts as a fundamental right with due process requiring the waiver of court fees to exercise the right.

Pursuant to the prison litigation reform act 28 U.S. Code § 1915 - Proceedings in forma pauperis describe the required process for applicants, indigent persons and prisoners to access the judicial system. As one of the private people acting in her own private capacity to protect her interest in private property, Relator does not qualify under any of these statutory definitions.

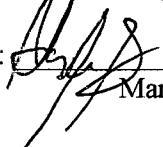

Relator seeks the following relief: 1) Grant Relator's motion to proceed without filing fees; 2) Grant Relator's Petition for Writ of Certiorari and emergency injunctive relief to restore Relator's possession of her private shelter of 18 years pending the court's review, outstanding appeals, and pending actions for quiet title; and provide all other relief deemed just and proper.

Verification

I say here and will verify all herein be true and correct under the laws of the Almighty Creator.

Respectfully submitted,
