United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

No. 24-30558 Summary Calendar

United States of America,

United States Court of Appeals Fifth Circuit

FILED

February 10, 2025

Lyle W. Cayce Clerk

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

KELVIN GREER,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana USDC No. 5:24-CR-20-1

Before SMITH, STEWART, and DUNCAN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Kelvin Greer asserts that the statute under which he was convicted, 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1), is facially unconstitutional under the Second Amendment in view of New York State Rifle & Pistol Ass'n, Inc. v. Bruen, 597 U.S. 1 (2022). The Government has filed an unopposed motion for summary affirmance, or alternatively, for an extension of time in which to file a brief.

^{*} This opinion is not designated for publication. See 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.

No. 24-30558

The Government is correct that Greer's challenge is foreclosed. See United States v. Diaz, 116 F.4th 458, 471-72 (5th Cir. 2024). Therefore, summary affirmance is appropriate. See Groendyke Transp., Inc. v. Davis, 406 F.2d 1158, 1162 (5th Cir. 1969). The motion for summary affirmance is GRANTED, the alternative motion for an extension of time is DENIED, and the judgment of the district court is AFFIRMED.

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of: 46 months as to count 1. The Court notes the potential of an "anticipated state sentence" in the 26th Judicial District Court in Bossier Parish under Docket No. 248634. This matter represents relevant conduct. Pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5Gl.3(c), it is the Order of the Court that this sentence shall run concurrently with any state sentence imposed in the matter from the 26th Judicial District Court in Bossier Parish. Should the Defendant be entitled to credit for any of the time he has already spent in custody, the Federal Bureau of Prisons will make that determination. The Court notes the potential of an "anticipated state sentence" in the First Judicial District Court in Caddo Parish under Docket No. 390394. This matter does not represent relevant conduct. Therefore, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5G1.3(d) and 18 U.S.C. § 3584, it is the Order of the Court that this sentence shall run consecutively with any state sentence imposed in the matter from the First Judicial District Court in Caddo Parish. Should the Defendant be entitled to credit for any of the time he has already spent in custody, the Federal Bureau of Prisons will make that determination.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION (SC)

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1 You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.

- You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
