Iris L. Anderson,
Appellant(s)

Case 1D2023-3039
L.T. No.: 2023-80-CA

v.

City of Jasper, County of Hamilton,
Fla. D.O.C., and the State of Florida,
Appellee(s).

BY ORDER OF THE COURT:

Appellant Iris L. Anderson has engaged in a series of repetitious and frivolous filings. On October 18, 2017, in case number 2013-CF-207, the Fifth District Court of Appeal prohibited Anderson from filing any further pro se appeals, motions, or petitions. Then, on October 4, 2019—in the same case—the Fifth Judicial Circuit Court for Marion County also barred Anderson from filing motions and petitions.

Here, it appears that Anderson is seeking a new forum to re-litigate the claims he is barred from raising in the Fifth Judicial Circuit and the Fifth District Court of Appeal. Thus, according to State v. Spencer, 751 So. 2d 47 (Fla. 1999), Anderson shall show cause within 20 days of the date of this order why sanctions should not be imposed on him, including a prohibition on further pro se filings in this Court related to the judgment and sentence in case number 2013-CF-207 as well as a referral of this matter to the Department of Corrections for disciplinary action under section 944.279, Florida Statutes.

Case 1D2023-3039

Anderson is advised that the failure to comply with the terms of this order within the time allowed may result in the imposition of sanctions without further opportunity to be heard. See Fla. R. App. P. 9.410.

Iris L. Anderson,

Case 1D2023-3039
L.T. No.: 2023-80-CA

v.

City of Jasper, County of Hamilton,
Fla. D.O.C., and the State of Florida,

Appellee(s).

BY ORDER OF THE COURT:

This Court ordered Appellant to show cause why he should not be barred from further pro se filings in this Court and why this matter should not be referred to the Department of Corrections for disciplinary action. We have considered Appellant's response and reject his contention as contrary to the record and without merit.

Appellant's response did not show cause why this Court should not limit his ability to file pro se actions and papers in this Court. We find his repeated filings challenging previously addressed issues a hindrance to this Court's ability to devote its resources to the timely consideration of genuine disputes and legitimate, colorable claims. See Pettway v. McNeil, 987 So. 2d 20, 22-23 (Fla. 2008). We therefore prohibit Appellant from filing—and instruct the Clerk of this Court to reject—any future pleadings, petitions, motions, documents, or other filings submitted by Iris L. Anderson, DC# 222991, that are related to his conviction and sentence in Marion County Circuit Court Case No. 2013-CF-00207, unless signed by a member in good standing of the Florida Bar. This prohibition includes any response or motion directed to this order. If Appellant violates this order, he may be subject to further sanctions.

We hereby direct the Clerk of this Court to forward a certified copy of this Order to the facility in which Appellant is incarcerated for any disciplinary action that may be considered appropriate. See §§ 944.279, 944.28, Fla. Stat.
