QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

Mental health has been on the rise for the last decade. I have battled it for many years prior but I have been in psychotherapy for six years! Returning to the United States in 2019 was one challenge. Residing in Washington DC as a new resident (who experienced even more trauma while abroad) is a totally different level of eccentricity! Witnessing such without realizing what I was actually faced with (on top of mental health issues) was very frightening and disheartening. Then to experience another unprofessional event such as this one with ~~Anamark~~ due to it being normal in DC is beyond hurtful. It should be held accountable ~~Anamark~~ (Anamark@ Capital One Arena) and compensated for!

Question

- 1) As a judge, prosecutor, or any of the sorts, would you take any factor within this case into consideration? Knowing that the plaintiff has dealt with and currently deals with their mental health?
- 2) If you were the plaintiff would you feel neglected by your attorney when they left you without nothing to stand on? As you were suffering? From all aftermath?
- 3) Racism, discrimination, harassment and sexual assault are horrific matters and should be viewed as such. If these went on in any work place, how should it be resolved?
- 4) After being an employee who is victimized for the experience of bias discrimination and all that took place within Anamark@ Capital One arena, how would you feel if everything was overlooked, dismissed and lower courts labeled this case as untimely. However, what about the negligence of the attorney with an unwell client? If these happenings did not affect me personally as being pro se would not be righting this case or inaction. when I

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

- 10/14/2024 I put in a notice of sexual assault and work place Hostility
- Attached is the Civil Docket for this case from the U.S. District Court - District of Columbia (Washington DC)
- Attached is the General Docket from the United States Court of Appeals for District of Columbia Circuit
- Attached is my motion to Reconsider. I filed it on 11/21/2024
- Attached is my order from the court which was filed 11/7/2024
- Attached is my order from the court which was filed 12/20/2024
- Furthermore, "Motion - (pro-se) was filed at the Superior Court Civil Division - Civil Action branch 07/22/2024. However, it was not show on the Docket.
- September 2, 2024 is a copy of the postal receipt.
- I may have been "untimely" back then. However, I am best without legal counsel due to making my case reach to the Supreme Court (Pro-se at best).
- This case is most definitely worth a judge granting fairness and justice.
- Reference Case: Bowles v. Russell, 551 U.S. 205, 209 (2007)

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

To be quite honest, up to 25 years should be enabled to file for justice (for any victim of all that is mentioned in this case). That person's intentions, mental health, aim to locate assistance of any sort due to what traumatized them, should be taken into deep consideration!

My experiences, agony, anger, and attempt to find legal help has been extremely difficult in more ways than one. The dismissals and seemingly doors closed at me has hurt my feelings. It has nearly discouraged me from looking for any further refuge! To this day, I dread the thought of returning to any work place. The horrors of it has given me nightmares and anxiety attacks/panick attacks that I never speak upon.

Most of all and more, my petition that I have submitted is one that should: stop dismissing so vastly without mental evaluation and proof, make every work place in the United States a zone for "Zero Tolerance and NO Excuses" for the mistreatments (like stated in my case against Aramark @ Capital One Arena), and take into the mind that life throws many obstacles and trials to people (regardless of their income) and will make them aggressive enough to seek justice - or give up on themselves and humanity!

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Monique C. Wallace
