CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

The Debtors note that a private litigant has filed a claim on behalf of the United States government as a re/ator alleging that Debtor 21st Century Oncology, LLC (21C LLC) non-Debtors Florida Cancer Specialists, P.L. (FCS) and certain individuals caused damages by entering into a gentlemen's agreement pursuant to which 21C did not offer medical oncology services to patients in southwest Florida in return for FCS not offering radiation oncology services in the same geographical area. The government declined to intervene in this case and aic LLC has not been served with the complaint despite these facts, the debtors will include on the schedules a contingent, unliquidated, and disputed claim with respect to this alleged anticompetitive con duct. Furthermore the Department of Justice has ~~announced~~ inquiry related to certain potential criminal antitrust violations regarding the market in Florida.

The debtors are not aware of any claims that have been asse rted by any other person with respect to alleged anticompetitive conduct.

Rule 10. ✓

Reasons

The United States Court of Appeals of the Second Circuit of New York DENIED me and the Honorable Nelson Stephen Roman court order dated 3/22/2024 because those debtors lack an arguable basis either in law or in fact. The 21st century oncology Holdings Inc and their agent Kurtzman Carson Consultants breach performance and they are avoiding us. The Lower courts have departed so far from its accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings and now have to call for an exercise of this court's supervisory power cause the case lacks legal force.
