Re: The GEO Group, Inc. v. Alejandro Menocal, et al, SCOTUS Case No.: 24-758

Dear Mr. Harris:

The Court granted the petition for writ of certiorari in this case on June 2, 2025. Petitioner's opening brief is currently due July 17, 2025, and Respondents' answering brief is currently due August 18, 2025. Pursuant to Rule 30.4, the parties jointly request two-week extensions to each of the foregoing deadlines. The resulting deadlines will be as follows:

Petitioner's opening brief and joint appendix	July 31, 2025
Respondents' answering brief	September 15, 2025
Petitioner's reply brief	October 15, 2025

This extension is justified because counsel for both parties face numerous deadlines in other cases. Petitioner's counsel has two merits briefs due in the Ninth Circuit before the opening brief in this matter. Respondents' counsel has a brief in opposition due in this Court, a brief due in the Ninth Circuit, two briefs due in the California Court of Appeals, and a brief due in the Washington Court of Appeals. This extension will permit the Court to hear argument in this case as early as its November sitting.
