

No. 24A964

IN THE
Supreme Court of the United States

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

RESPONDENT,

v.

ALEXANDER SITTENFELD aka P.G. Sittenfeld

PETITIONER.

APPLICATION OF PETITIONER ALEXANDER “P.G.”
SITTENFELD FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A PETITION
FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES
COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SIXTH CIRCUIT

To the Honorable Brett Kavanaugh, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and Circuit Justice for the Sixth Circuit:

1. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rules 13.5, 22, and 30, Applicant Alexander “P.G.” Sittenfeld respectfully requests a 30-day extension of time, up to and including Friday, July 11, 2025, to file a petition for a writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, seeking review of that court’s decision rejecting Mr. Sittenfeld’s challenge to his conviction for Hobbs Act extortion and federal-program bribery. The Sixth Circuit issued its decision on February 11, 2025, this Court’s jurisdiction will be invoked under 28 U.S.C. § 1254(a). While the time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari would have otherwise expired on Monday, May 12, 2025, Mr. Sittenfeld timely sought and was granted a single 30-day extension of time to file the petition until June 11, 2025. See No. 24A964.

2. Although this Application for Extension of Time is being presented less than ten days prior to the date on which the time for filing the petition is to expire, the Application is still timely under Supreme Court Rule 30.2 due to the extraordinary circumstances presented here. On May 28, 2025, the President issued a full and unconditional pardon to Mr. Sittenfeld for the offenses he was convicted of below, just 14 days before his petition was due. Petitioner continues to evaluate the effect of that pardon, including whether the criminal fine he paid will be returned to him in light of the pardon and whether any collateral consequences of his conviction will persist despite the pardon. Determining whether a petition for certiorari is still necessary in these extraordinary circumstances warrants careful consideration, which constitutes good cause for the extension.

3. WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that an order be entered extending the time for Petitioner to file his petition for certiorari to July 11, 2025.

Dated: June 4, 2025

Respectfully submitted,
