4. (State the reasons why you believe that you are entitled to the relief you seek. Be specific and use short paragraphs. Add additional sheets of paper if necessary; also attach copies of any exhibits to which you refer in your affirmation:) ~~we~~ we have been injured deeply. And still to this day, suffer the consequences of that unjust eviction

While the defendants have moved on and out of here in the property ~~we~~ was illegally evicted from, on May 28, 2023.

Then the defendants, who evicted me/us, let me/us stay at their house for a year, which is now where we are at that last month of that year.

And now they want me/us to just move out on my/our own without them having to evict me/us again legally.

However, ~~we~~ we still have no place to go to. And the defendants get to side step the laws of the land.

And get away with it, without the defendants being held accountable for my wrongdoings. While me/my family are still suffering homelessly.

How can this be possible here in America? When the very essence of civil liberty certainly consist in the right of every individual to claim the protection of the laws, whenever they receive an injury. One of the first duties of government is to afford that protection. Britt v Sackler, 1978 and 1112 similar citations.

As I have previously stated in my pleadings, I am not an attorney. Therefore, I was expecting help from other sources and persons who helped me along the way. But, when I needed them, they were unresponsive.

With that being said, when I did not get a response, my petition was out of time. I was then told to send it in anyway, which I did.

When I went to the UPS store, they ran out of space so I could only send the 10 copies and one original for 2356554. Then the store was closed, and the package did not go out on the same day, as I thought it would. Then there was the weekend which added to the delay in postmarking and delivery. I have done my best to comply with all the rules and regulations of the courts. However, it has not been enough to keep me in the fight for justice. That is why I am requesting this motion to file out of time.

I cannot file out of time, this court will certainly cease to discuss this high appellation if the law turned up a remedy for the violations of a vested legal right. I Bonaparte District of Columbia 1994 and 567 similar citations.

Guardians v. Public Service of Colorado, 2010 and 56 similar citations.

There were two cases 235C 554 and 555. I only sent in the 554 case because the store ran out of paper. 235C 554 and 555 are the same, just different case numbers.

5. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.
