4. (State the reasons why you believe that you are entitled to the relief you seek. Be specific and use short paragraphs. Add additional sheets of paper if necessary; also attach copies of any exhibits to which you refer in your affirmation.) I/we have been injured deeply. And, still to this day, suffer the consequences of that unjust eviction.

While the defendants have moved on and put others in the property I was illegally evicted from, on May 28, 2013.

Then the defendants, who evicted me/us, let me/us stay at their house for a year, which is now where we live at that last month of that year.

And now they want me/us to just move out on my/our own without them having to evict me/us again legally.

Moreover, I/we still have no place to go to. And the defendants get to side step the laws of the land.

And get away with it, without the defendants being held accountable for any wrongdoings. While me/my family are still suffering horribly.

How can this be possible here in America? When the very essence of civil liberty certainly consist in the right of every individual to claim the protection of the laws, whenever they receive an injury. One of the first duties of government is to afford that protection. Brill v Sackles 1978 and 1112 similar citations.

As I have previously stated in my pleadings, I am not an attorney. Therefore, I was expecting help from other sources and persons, who helped me along the way. But, when I needed them, they were unresponsive, over

With that being said, when I did get a response, my petition was out of time. I was then told to send it in anyway, which I did.

When I went to the UPS store, they ran out of paper so I could only send the 10 copies and one original for 2356554. Then the store was closed, and my package did not go out on the same day, as I thought it would. Then there was the weekend which added to the delay in postmarking and delivery. I have done my best to comply with all the rules and regulations of the courts. However, it has not been enough to keep me in the fight for justice. That is why I am requesting this motion to file out of time.
