CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Supreme Court just denied the case. I was told they did not have to give a reason. I do believe there is prejudice and discrimination on their part of the decision.

In the Lower Court they denied the case for not being submitted on time I sent them the postmark ~~receipt~~ receipt, They also said I did not file my paperwork properly I filed how I was told to file all paperwork. I also find their decision to be based on prejudice and discrimination because they asked for the case file from unemployment.

Please see all papers I have enclosed for both cases for unemployment.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

I believe the letters that I submitted to the courts were read with prejudice of me stating that unemployment had to have some prejudice and discrimination towards me because they never gave me the monies owed to me and they did take the monies for the overpayment I am still owed these monies. If the court asked for my case record why did they not see that all monies were still owed to me. But Both courts denied and mooted and Quashed the cases. Something seems wrong to me, Please read the 2 letters I wrote to the court explaining my case. I do have more evidence.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Tenisha Rooney
