* Counsel of Record for Petitioner, member of the Supreme Court Bar

To the Honorable Samuel A. Alito, Jr., as Circuit Justice for the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit:

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C.§ 2101(c) and this Court's Rule 13.5, Mr. Ali Awad Mahmoud Irsan, an indigent death-sentenced prisoner, respectfully applies for a 30day extension of time to file his petition for a writ of certiorari to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Respondent, the State of Texas, is unopposed to this application.

In support of this request, he offers the following:

1. The jurisdiction of this Court is based on 28 U.S.C. 1254(1).

2. Mr. Irsan will be filing a petition for writ of certiorari challenging the judgment of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals affirming his state capital conviction and death sentence on direct review. That court filed its judgment and opinion on February 26, 2025. Ali Awad Mahmoud Irsan v. State of Texas, 708 S.W.3d 584 (Tex. Crim. App. 2025). See Appendix A. Mr. Irsan timely filed a petition for rehearing, which was denied on April 16, 2025. See Appendix B.

3. Mr. Irsan's petition for writ of certiorari is due to be filed in this Court by July 15, 2022. In compliance with Rule 13.5, this application for additional time is being filed at least 10 days before that date.

4. This is a capital case in which preparing the petition for certiorari demands particularly extensive work. The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals' 48-page opinion in Mr. Irsan's direct appeal addresses 30 points of error, some of which involve substantial issues of constitutional law, including whether the trial court's approval of defense counsel's race-based decision to excuse a potential juror from service violates the Equal Protection Clause

5. Mr. Marcus, counsel of record, was not counsel of record in the case below and has agreed to assist Mr. Irsan before this Court pro bono. Additionally, Mr. Marcus has a brief due on July 15, 2025—the same date on which Mr. Irsan's petition for certiorari is currently due—in a capital habeas corpus case pending before the United States District Court. See Medrano v. Guerrero, No 7:17-cv-00069 (S.D.TX.). Mr. Marcus also had pre-planned travel in June and additional travel scheduled in July preceding the current due date.

6. Applicant has not previously sought an extension of time from this Court.

7. Respondent, the Harris County District Attorney's Office is unopposed to this extension of time, there is no pending execution date.

8. Accordingly, Mr. Irsan respectfully requests that the Court grant this application and extend the time allowed to file his petition for a writ of certiorari for 30 days, up to and including August 14, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

James Marcus Counsel of Record Texas Bar No. 00787963 University of Texas School of Law Capital Punishment Clinic 727 East Dean Keaton Street Austin, Texas 78705 Tel: (512) 232-1475 jmarcus@law.utexas.edu
