The Chief Justice said :

“I have a statement to make on behalf of the Court. The announcement of Mr. Justice Douglas’ retirement as a member of this Court was made on Wednesday last week. We on the Court who have been intimate witnesses to his gallant struggle to recover his health and his strength hope now that he is free from the incessant burden that his high sense of duty placed on him, he will be able to direct his great courage and his infinite willpower to recovering his health.

“Our feelings about him officially as his colleagues, and personally as his friends, are more fully expressed in a letter signed by all of the members of the Court and Justice Douglas’ reply to that letter. These letters, I think, will suggest something of the nature of the relationships within the Court in the constant contacts that occur day by day in an institution in which all of the members must act together and work together on every matter that comes before the Court.”

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES,
Washington, D.C.,
November 14, 1975.

CHAMBERS OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE

DEAR BILL: Only when you made your decision known did we fully sense what that meant to us and to the Court. For us, as colleagues and friends, your absence from the Conference table and our deliberations will be deeply felt. Whether ultimately we agreed or not, as colleagues we valued highly your unparalleled knowledge of the multitude of decisions of the Court covering more than one-third of this century. It was a unique resource for the Court and one that may never again be present at our Conference table. We shall always remember your occasional verbal "footnotes" telling us intimate details as to how some opinion evolved. As friends we shall miss the daily contacts, which have varied in length and kind for each of us. Some have long been colleagues, some have argued before you, some have come here more recently, but all of us share great respect and affection for you.

The hope on our part is that, relieved of the burdens of Court work, your health will improve, and this eases our sense of loss. In the months since last January we have felt boundless admiration for your courageous fight to recover your strength and your placing duty above concern for your health.

So much has been said and will be said on other occasions about your remarkable career that no more need be noted now than to recall that it is far more than a record of longevity, for it spanned a period in American history comparable to that of the formative period early in the 19th century when Marshall and then Taney were here.

We shall miss your vast reservoir of firsthand knowledge of the Court's cases of the past 36 years and, as well, the warm daily contacts in Conference and on the Bench. It goes without saying that we shall expect you to share our table as usual, for you remain Senior Justice Emeritus.

Sincerely,

WARREN E. BURGER.

CHAMBERS OF

JUSTICE WILLIAM O. DOUGLAS

MY DEAR BRETHREN: Your message, written on my retirement from the Court, filled my heart with overflowing emotion. You were kind and generous and made every hour, including the last one on our arduous journey, happy and relaxed.

I am reminded of many canoe trips I have taken in my lifetime. Those who start down a water course may be strangers at the beginning but almost invariably are close friends at the end. There were strong headwinds to overcome and there were rainy as well as sun drenched days to travel. The portages were long and many and some were very strenuous. But there were always a pleasant camp in a stand of white bark birch and water concerts held at night to the music of the loons; and inevitably there came the last camp fire, the last breakfast cooked over last night's fire, and the parting was always sad.

And yet, in fact, there was no parting because each happy memory of the choice parts of the journey—and of the whole journey—was of a harmonious united effort filled with fulfilling and beautiful hours as well as dull and dreary ones. The greatest such journey I've made has been with you, my Brethren, who were strangers at the start but warm and fast friends at the end.

The value of our achievements will be for others to appraise. Other like journeys will be made by those who follow us, and we trust that they will leave these wilderness water courses as pure and unpolluted as we left those which we traversed.

Yours faithfully,

WILLIAM O. DOUGLAS.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE AND ASSOCIATE JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

The Chief Justice said:

"In accordance with tradition and practice, these letters will be made part of the permanent records of the Court and will be recorded in the Court's journal."

ORDERS IN PENDING CASES

No. A-426. Nebraska Press Association et al., applicants, v. Hugh Stuart, Judge, District Court of Lincoln County, Nebraska. On November 21, 1975, the petitioners filed a motion with the full Court to vacate in part Mr. Justice Blackmun's stay order filed herein on November 20, 1975. Inasmuch as the order of November 20 was directed solely to the order dated October 27, 1975, of the District Court of Lincoln County, Nebraska, and by its terms was subject to such action as might subsequently be taken by the Supreme Court of Nebraska, and inasmuch as the Supreme Court of Nebraska on December 1 issued its order in the matter and Mr. Justice Blackmun's order has thereby expired and is no longer effective, the petitioners' motion is denied. Denial of this application is without prejudice to the Court's consideration of the petitioners' further application for stays and for other relief filed with this Court on December 4, 1975, and presently pending.

ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 75-817. Nebraska Press Association et al., petitioners, v. Hugh Stuart, Judge, District Court of Lincoln County, Nebraska, et al. Motion of Nebraska Press Association et al. for leave to treat their application as a petition for writ of certiorari having been heretofore granted, it is ordered:

1. Petition for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court of Nebraska granted;

2. Motion to expedite denied. Mr. Justice Brennan, Mr. Justice Stewart, and Mr. Justice Marshall would grant motion.

3. Application for stay denied. Mr. Justice Brennan, Mr. Justice Stewart, and Mr. Justice Marshall would grant application. Mr. Justice White would stay judgment of the Nebraska Supreme Court to the extent that its order forbade the publication of information disclosed in public at the preliminary hearing in the criminal case out of which this case arose. In this respect, he is in disagreement with the Court's actions in this case today. He joins the Court in granting the petition for writ of certiorari and in ordering plenary consideration of this case, which as he understands it raises issues broader than the power of the State to enjoin the publication of facts disclosed at a public hearing in a State court. Being convinced that these questions should be decided only after adequate briefing and argument and ample time for mature consideration, he is in agreement that we should not attempt to hear and decide this case prior to the beginning of the criminal trial in early January.

4. Petitioners Nebraska Press Association et al, are invited to file an amended petition for certiorari on or before December 30, 1975. Responses may be made in accord with the Court's Rules.

"1. Does the mere continued presence in certain local markets of retail establishments allegedly 'acquired' by a 'deep pocket' manufacturer in violation of Section 7 of the Clayton Act afford a basis for competing retailers to recover damages under Section 4 of the Clayton Act when there is no proof that the 'acquisitions' resulted in any lessening of competition or monopoly in those markets?

"2. Does not the 'failing company' principle require dismissal of a treble-damage action based on alleged violations of Section 7 of the Clayton Act where the plaintiffs' entire damage theory is based on the premise that the 'acquired' businesses would have failed and disappeared from the market had the defendant not kept them alive by making the challenged 'acquisitions'?"

It is ordered that the application for a stay of the judgment of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (No. C-73-1293 AJZ), dated January 14, 1976, as amended by its order of February 9, 1976, is granted but limited to Items 1, 2 and 4 of said judgment, pending final disposition of applicants' appeal from the said judgment to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Present: Mr. Chief Justice Burger, Mr. Justice Brennan, Mr. Justice Stewart, Mr. Justice White, Mr. Justice Marshall, Mr. Justice Blackmun, Mr. Justice Powell, Mr. Justice Rehnquist, and Mr. Justice Stevens.

The Chief Justice said:

"Today's orders of the Court have been certified by the Chief Justice, filed with the Clerk, and will not be announced orally."

OPINION PER CURIAM

No. 75-1382. The Omaha National Bank, petitioner, v. Nebraskans for Independent Banking, Inc., et al. On petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit. Petition for writ of certiorari granted, judgment vacated and case remanded to the Court of Appeals for reconsideration in light of Legislative Bill 763. Opinion per curiam.

APPEALS—SUMMARY DISPOSITION

No. 73-1915. Lester L. Perkins, appellant, v. Howard Smith et al. Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Maryland. Judgment affirmed. Mr. Justice Brennan and Mr. Justice Marshall would note probable jurisdiction and set case for oral argument.

No. 74-216. United States Civil Service Commission et al., appellants, v. Jose Antonio Santin Ramos and Jose Joaquin Cabrera Gomez. Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico. Motion of appellees for leave to proceed in forma pauperis granted. Insofar as the judgment of the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico declares 5 C.F.R. § 338.101 to be invalid, judgment affirmed. Hampton v. Mow Sun Wong, 425 U.S. ——— (1976). Because the current Appropriation Act's exclusion of payments to aliens for positions within the United States does not apply to Cuban nationals like the plaintiff-appellee, P. L. 94-91, 89 Stat. 458, the District Court is directed to vacate as moot that part of its judgment holding § 601 of the Treasury Postal Service and General Government Appropriation Act of 1973, P. L. 92-351, unconstitutional.

Insofar as appellants seek to appeal from the District Court's holding that 7 U.S.C. § 1961(b)(1) and FHA Instruction 441.2 are unconstitutional, the appeal is dismissed for want of jurisdiction. The District Court failed to enter an injunction from which an appeal lies under 28 U.S.C. § 1253 and the notice of appeal was not filed within 30 days of any arguably appealable order. See 28 U.S.C. § 2101 (a), (b). The District Court may reconsider its holding in light of Hampton v. Mow Sun Wong, 425 U.S. — (1976) and Mathews v. Diaz, 425 U.S. — (1976) before it enters a final judgment.

No. 75-336. California State Board of Pharmacy et al., appellants, v. Shirley Terry, etc. et al. Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. Judgment affirmed.

No. 75-1496. Charles Ross Carino, appellant, v. Ella T. Grasso, Governor of the State of Connecticut. Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut. Judgment affirmed.

No. 75-1119. Film Follies, Inc., appellant, v. Harl Haas, etc., et al. Appeal from the Court of Appeals of Oregon. The appeal is dismissed for want of a substantial federal question. Dissenting opinion by Mr. Justice Brennan with whom Mr. Justice Stewart and Mr. Justice Marshall concur.

No. 75-1430. Renault Robinson, appellant, v. City of Chicago. Appeal from the Appellate Court of Illinois, First District. The appeal is dismissed for want of a substantial federal question. Mr. Justice Brennan and Mr. Justice Marshall would note probable jurisdiction and set case for oral argument.

No. 75-1539. Board of Optometry, State of California, appellant, v. California Citizens Action Group et al. Appeal from the United States District Court for the Central District of California. Motion of American Optometric Association for leave to file a brief, as amicus curiae, granted. Judgment vacated and case remanded to the United States District Court for the Central District of California for further consideration in light of Virginia Board of Pharmacy v. Virginia Citizens Consumer Council, Inc., 425 U.S. — (1976).

No. 75-6605. Thomas B. White, appellant, v. Nelson P. Guild. Appeal from the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. The appeal is dismissed for want of jurisdiction. Treating the papers whereon the appeal was taken as a petition for writ of certiorari, certiorari denied.

No. 75-6640. Kattie Mae Price, appellant, v. Iowa. Appeal from the Supreme Court of Iowa. The appeal is dismissed for want of a final judgment (28 U.S.C. 1257).

CERTIORARI—SUMMARY DISPOSITION

Mr. Justice Brennan, dissenting:

For the reasons stated in my dissenting opinion in Gregg v. Georgia, 428 U.S. ———, ——— (1976), the imposition and carrying out of the death penalty in each of these cases constitutes cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments. I would therefore grant certiorari in each of these cases and vacate the judgment in each case insofar as it leaves undisturbed the death sentence imposed.

Mr. Justice Marshall, dissenting:

Because I consider the death penalty to be a cruel and unusual punishment forbidden by the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments, see Gregg v. Georgia, 428 U.S. ———, ——— (1976) (Marshall, J., dissenting) I would grant certiorari in these cases and vacate the judgments insofar as they leave undisturbed the sentences of death.

Mr. Justice Brennan, dissenting:

For the reasons stated in my dissenting opinion in Gregg v. Georgia, 428 U.S. ———, ——— (1976), the imposition and carrying out of the death penalty in each of these cases constitutes cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments. I would therefore grant certiorari in each of these cases and vacate judgment in each case insofar as it leaves undisturbed the death sentence imposed.

Mr. Justice Marshall, dissenting:

Because I consider the death penalty to be a cruel and unusual punishment forbidden by the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments, see Gregg v. Georgia, 428 U.S. —, — (1967) (Marshall, J., dissenting), I would grant certiorari in these cases and vacate the judgments insofar as they leave undisturbed the sentences of death.

No. 74-6717. Learie Leo Alford, petitioner, v. Florida. Petition for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court of Florida denied.

Mr. Justice Brennan and Mr. Justice Marshall, dissenting:

Petitioner contends that his right of confrontation, guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments, was violated because the transcript of the preliminary hearing testimony of a material prosecution witness was read at his trial and the prosecution, although it was aware that the witness would leave Florida prior to the trial, failed to use available procedures to assure the witness' presence at trial or to depose the witness before the trial began. See Barber v. Page, 390 U.S. 719 (1968). On the record in this case, we would grant certiorari and set the case for oral argument.

In any event, the imposition and carrying out the death penalty in this case constitutes cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments. Gregg v. Georgia, 428 U.S. —, — (1976) (Brennan, J., dissenting); id., at — (Marshall, J., dissenting). We would therefore grant certiorari and vacate the judgment in this case insofar as it leaves undisturbed the death sentence imposed.

No. 75-927. Patricia Hogge, Earle Phillips t/a Paradise Massage Parlor et al., petitioners, v. C. E. Johnson, City Manager, and Patrick G. Minetti, Chief of Police, City of Hampton, Virginia et al. Petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit denied. Mr. Justice Brennan would grant the petition for certiorari and, as in Colorado Springs Amusements, Ltd. v. Rizzo, post, at —, remand the case to the Court of Appeals for determination of petitioners' constitutional contentions giving appropriate, but not necessarily conclusive, weight to our summary dispositions.

No. 75-999. Colorado Springs Amusements, Ltd., etc. et al., Petitioners v. Frank L. Rizzo, Mayor of Philadelphia et al. Petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit denied. Dissenting opinion by Mr. Justice Brennan.

No. 75-1482. Geisha House, Inc., petitioner, v. Maurice J. Cullinane et al. Petition for writ of certiorari to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals denied. Mr. Justice Brennan would grant certiorari and, as in *Colorado Springs Amusements, Ltd., v. No. 75-6596. Gary Eldon Alvord, petitioner, v. Florida. Petition for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court of Florida denied.

Mr. Justice Brennan and Mr. Justice Marshall, dissenting:

Petitioner contends that he was unconstitutionally convicted because a statement he made during in-custody interrogation was admitted in evidence during the prosecution's case-in-chief, despite the absence of any warning to petitioner that if he could not afford an attorney one would be appointed to represent him before questioning. See Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966). On the record in this case, we would grant certiorari and set case for oral argument.

In any event, the imposition and carrying out of the death penalty in this case constitutes cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments. Gregg v. Georgia, 428 U.S. —, — (1976) (Brennan, J., dissenting); id., at — (Marshall, J., dissenting). We would therefore grant certiorari and vacate judgment in this case insofar as it leaves undisturbed the death sentence imposed.
