RE: John R. Zimmerman v. Thomas W. Corbett, Linda L. Kelly, et. al.
Supreme Court Docket No.: 17-1234
Third Circuit Docket No.: 16-3384
Our File No.: 1020-6665

Dear Sir or Madam:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4, please allow this letter to serve as a motion to extend the time to file Respondents' Brief in Opposition to Petitioner's Petition for a Writ of Certiorari filed with this Court on January 16, 2018, and docketed on March 5, 2018, at Docket No. 17-1234 by thirty (30) days.

An extension is justified because Respondents' Counsel, Josh Autry, Esquire, does not possess sufficient time to timely file a Brief in Opposition that is adequate in substance and form to properly represent his clients' position. On Friday, March 9th around 7:39 p.m., Petitioner's Counsel informed Respondents' Counsel that the Petitioner's Appeal was docketed with this Court. Between that time and now, Respondents' Counsel has had significant obligations in other matters that have materially impaired compliance with the upcoming filing deadline.

Specifically, Attorney Autry had a pre-planned trip to Nashville, Tennessee for client training from Monday, March 12, 2018, until Wednesday, March 14, 2018. Additionally, Attorney Autry had numerous filing deadlines including: (1) a letter brief in support of a dispositive motion on March 20, 2018, in the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas in the Does v. Franklin County, No. 2014-4623 matter, (2) a brief in support of a dispositive motion due on March 20, 2018, in the United States District Court of the Middle District of Pennsylvania in the Gerhart v. Energy Transfer Partners, et.al., No. 1:17-cv-1726 matter, (3) a brief in support of a dispositive motion due on March 22, 2018, in the United States District Court of the Middle District of Pennsylvania in the Dillard v. Cornick, et. al., No. 1:18-cv-70 matter, (4) a brief in support of a dispositive motion due on March 22, 2018, in the United States District Court of the Middle District of Pennsylvania in the Charbonneau v. Harper, et. al., No. 1:18-cv-69 matter, (5) a brief of the appellees due on March 23, 2018, in the United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals, in the Murray v. Keen, et. al, No. 17-3117 matter, (6) and a brief in opposition to a motion for recusal to be due on March 29, 2018, in the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas in the Does v. Franklin County, No. 2014-4623 matter.

Moreover, Attorney Autry had numerous depositions in the interim including: (1) a deposition on March 20, 2018, in the Goldsmith v. Franklin County, No. 3:16-cv-952 in matter in the United States District Court of the Middle District of Pennsylvania, (2) depositions on March 23, 2018, and March 27, 2018, in the Anthony v. City of Allentown, No. 5:14-cv-5554 matter in the United States District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, (3) depositions to be on March 30, 2018, April 2, 2018, and April 3, 2018, in the Anthony v. City of Allentown, No. 5:14-cv-5554 matter in the United States District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, (4) and a deposition to be on March 29, 2018, in the McClure v. Carroll, No. 1:14-cv-2249 matter in the United States District court of the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

Additionally, Respondents' Counsel has conferred with Petitioner's Counsel who has no objection with this present motion.

For the reasons stated above, Respondents kindly request this Court to grant their request for an extension of time to file their Brief in Opposition to Petitioner's Petition for a Writ of Certiorari by thirty days (30) days.

Per Supreme Court Rule 29, I have filed this letter electronically with this Court and mailed this letter first class mail to the Clerk and to the required parties.

Very truly yours,
