Re: Taylor Farms Pacific v. Pena, No. 17-395

Dear Mr. Bickell:

I am co-counsel for respondents in the above-referenced case. On September 15, 2017, a certiorari petition was docketed in this case, and on November 2, 2017, the Court requested that respondents file a response to the petition. Unless extended by the Court, the response would be due on December 4, 2017. I have primary responsibility for preparing the brief in opposition in this case. For the reasons that follow, and pursuant to Rule 30.4, I respectfully request an extension of 30 days, to and including January 3, 2018.

I have several pressing obligations during these upcoming weeks, including due dates for briefs in several matters in which I am serving as lead counsel. In addition, I will be traveling for the Thanksgiving holiday. An extension will allow me to meet these obligations and also to file a response that adequately addresses the points raised in the petition.

For these reasons, I ask that a 30-day extension be granted. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Adam R. Pulver
