In Removal Proceedings)	Detained--Bristol County

MOTION TO REOPEN IN-ABSENTIA ORDER OF REMOVAL OF OCTOBER 31, 2007

Now comes the respondent in the above referenced matter and respectfully requests this Honorable Court to re-open it's "In Absentia" Order of June 8, 2010, pursuant to INA ss. 240(b)(5)(c)(ii) as respondent, did not voluntarily evade notice of said proceedings where ICE prepared the Notice to Appear incompletely indicating the "physical residential address" of 19 Barling Ave, Oak Bluffs MA instead of the actual "mailing address" of P.O. Box 4521 Vineyard Haven, MA 02568 as stated and sworn in respondent's attached affidavit in support of this motion. Exhibit A: "Notice to Appear." This is not an uncommon error which causes many residents of Martha's Vineyard to inadvertently fail to appear. Please refer to his Sovereign Bank statement attached as Exhibit B, personal correspondence attached as Exhibit C, and 2011 federal tax return attached as Exhibit D, as evidence of his mailing address.

The Respondent is the father of K F , a four year-old U.S. citizen. Exhibit E (birth certificate); Exhibit F (family photograph). The Respondent's wife, Sandra Gomes, is in the final trimester of her second pregnancy and has a due date of May 17. Exhibit G. Because Ms. Gomes is eight months pregnant, she is unable to work and relies on the Respondent to provide food and pay the household's bills.

Mr. Pereira did not intend to evade his NTA. On the contrary, the Respondent is an honest and upright person who works hard as a painter, mover, and other labors. He pays his taxes. Exhibit D. He is well-known on Martha's Vineyard, and many members of the community including lawyers, small business owners, and family friends have written to Your Honor to express their solidarity with Mr. Pereira. See Exhibit H ("very reliable... extremely honest and trustworthy at all times and I do not hesitate to vouch for him. "A wonderful person... he has many friends who are fortunate to know him." "He deserves another opportunity to do what is best for his family." "He is as honest as anyone and would do anything for anyone...").

Prior to submitting this Motion to Reopen, the Respondent's counsel conducted a case file review via the Clerk's Office and have confirmed that both the "Notice to Appear" and the "In Absentia Order of Removal" were both returned as "undeliverable."

Mr. Pereira came to contact with Immigration authorities after he was arrested for OUI in Tisbury, Massachusetts on May 30, 2006. However he completed his probation through Tisbury District Court, including extended probation, and his probation was terminated on July 30, 2008. Because of his successful completion of probation he was released without serving a potential 150-day sentence in the House of Correction.

In light of Mr. Pereira's circumstances, including soon-to-be second baby on the way and his excellent standing in the Martha's Vineyard, we ask Your Honor to give Mr. Pereira the chance to comply fully with immigration proceedings, including the opportunity to seek reasonable relief, prosecutorial discretion, or release on bond. Exhibit I, Docket 635-CR-458.

Wherefore, the Respondent asks that his Motion to Reopen the In-Absentia Order of Removal of October 31, 2007 be allowed in light of the above lack of notice. Until a final decision, please stay all deportation orders until a final determination is made per this Motion. I did in good faith contact DHS Counsel "duty attorney" and where time is of the essence do herein file the MOTION TO RE-OPEN without a position taken (to date) by DHS on MARCH 28, 2013.

Respectfully submitted,

To Whom it May Concern:

I have known Wes Pereira for at least eight (8) years. He, his companion and daughter have resided in a rental house that I own for the last four (4) years. Wes has proven himself to be a very reliable individual. Not only is he responsible in taking care of the house he pays his rent in advance, no later than the 2nd of every month.

Wes is a hard worker as a house painter and has performed various jobs for me in that capacity. In addition to his house painting he also helps my wife by moving furniture and furnishings in and out of her antique store and by making deliveries of same with a friend of his.

As I have stated above, I find Wes to be reliable, responsible, extremely honest and trust worthy at all times and I do not hesitate to vouch for him.

Very truly yours,

March 18, 2013

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of my good neighbor, Wesley Pereira. Wesley has been my neighbor for four years. Wesley is a wonderful person. Wesley is friendly, thoughtful and very trusting. He goes out of his way to help not just his neighbors, but everyone that he can.

Wesley has recently painted my house for me. He is trustworthy and reliable. Importantly, Wesley can be counted on. He has a tremendous work ethic and along with that, he makes sure that things are done correctly. He always takes care of both his professional and personal responsibilities.

Wesley has a wonderful family and he is a great father to his 4-year-old daughter, K and husband to his loving wife, Sandra. He is soon to become a new proud father again this May. He loves his family very much and is always there for them. Additionally, he loves and cares for his Boston Terrier.

As a teacher at The Edgartown School for 23 years, I can say in all honesty that Wesley is an honorable person. Wesley has many friends who are fortunate to know him, as he is someone you can depend on and he is someone who puts others first before himself.

If I can be of more help in describing Wesley as a wonderful family man, hard worker, or good friend and neighbor, I would be most happy to provide it for you.

I am fortunate to be a friend and neighbor of such a good person. Wesley has his priorities in the right place.

Sincerely yours,

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Wesley Pereira and his wife, Sandra, since I moved to the island seven years ago. I write to assure that they are both fine, upstanding individuals and good parents to their daughter.

I have been a licensed social worker since 1968, and now work for hospice here on the island. I would be happy to vouch for Wesley at any time.

Sincerely yours,

March 18, 2013

To whom it may concern:

I have just been told that Wesley Pereira has been detained by Immigration. I have known Wes for a number of years and found him to be a very caring & giving individual. I think he is as honest as they come and would do anything for anyone with a simple request.

If anyone deserves another chance to make a life for himself and his family, it would be Wes. I have never heard him speak a cross word about anyone.

To Whom it may concern:

March 18, 2013

It has come to my knowledge that Wesley Pereira has been detained as an illegal alien. I have known Wesley for at least ten years and in that time have always found him to be an honest and upright person. He would never do harm to anyone. He deserves another opportunity to do what is best for him and his family.

Wes has always worked hard in the paint trade with a friendly disposition and a warm heart. I hope that you can see the goodness in him and in all fairness, release him.

Sincerely,

March 18, 2013

Dear Attorney Paulo Moura,

This is to attest to the character of Wesley F. Pereira.

He is a dependable, hard working young man who I have known for approximately 10 years. We became acquainted through work, which he has performed at my home (in Vineyard Haven) for many years. His professionalism impressed me from the start. Wes completes his work in a timely manner; therefore, I have relied on him over the years and have become accustomed to his dependability. Wes has a warm, polite, gentle manner. He is a wonderful, dedicated father and gentle husband who frequently speaks proudly of his young daughter and lovely wife.

It is also comforting to have Wes as a neighbor. I have depended on Wes when emergencies arise and at times this is at a moment's notice. If Wesley says that he will do something you can be assured that it will happen.

I have admired Wes not only for the high quality of his work and work ethic but also for his seriousness regarding his family and keeping himself in good health and maintaining balance in his life. Wes is frequently at the gym at 6am and on a weekend he can be found playing with his daughter. He is a sincere and proud family man as well as a thoughtful neighbor.

It is difficult to find outstanding young men such as Wes and it is a pleasure to know him. I always look forward to seeing Wes both in the neighborhood and in my home. His smile places me at ease and I can feel completely confident that he will take care of the situation at hand. He is a kind, thoughtful, gentle young man who can be relied on to do what he says and fulfill his responsibilities towards his family and friends. He is a great guy and contributes in a very positive way to our community. Without a doubt, Wes will go above and beyond to fulfill his responsibilities and I would strongly recommend him to my friends and associates as a sincere, honorable, reliable young man.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of my neighbor and close friend Wesley Pereira who I have known for over 10 years.

Wesley is a kind and caring person. Wesley always thinks of others and cares about how everyone is doing. Wesley is always ready to help anyone in need and even if not, Wesley is always there anyway, as a friend and someone you can fully count on and trust.

I am fortunate to have friends and neighbors like Wesley and his family. Wesley, his wife Sandra, their five year old daughter K and their one year old baby daughter M L are a loving and gracious family, along with their adorable dog Jolie. I have been invited many times to their family functions such as birthdays and holiday celebrations. They are truly a lovely family who spend quality time together and also share family time with friends and neighbors.

Together they have become an integral part of our community in Edgartown. Wesley and his family have a long-standing and close connection in this community and it is important to share how much Wesley and his family are thought of by our community.

It is because I know Wesley as I do, as a wonderful family man, kind, considerate and trustworthy human being, that I convey this in a way that expresses the kind of decent and dependable person Wesley is.

If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to contact me, as I will be happy to oblige.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Wesley Pereira

Dear Sir/Madame:

My name is * * *. I am a U.S. citizen and have lived on Martha's Vineyard for twenty-three years. I have been in the painting and landscaping business for the last sixteen years and have worked side by side with Wes for twelve years. Personally and professionally, Wes is a person that can be relied upon. He is willing to always lend a helping hand and always gives his best efforts. Wes is a responsible, diligent, and honest individual. He has worked extremely hard to create a better life for himself and his family.

Perhaps the best example of Wes' outstanding character is his influence and guidance of his older daughter, K . Wes has taught her to be polite, kind, and friendly. I am constantly amazed at how personable K is and I attribute that to the fine example that Wes sets. He is a reliable, supportive, and loving husband and father. He provides for his family and his absence would be a huge loss to his wife Sandra and his two little girls. Undoubtedly, Wes is irreplaceable to his family and our community.

Yours truly,

Wesley is a trusted and respected friend and it is a comfort to know I can always count on him to be there. I believe he is deserving of citizenship of this country.

To whom it may concern,

Wesley Pereira is not just a worker for us but a friend, as well. You cannot help liking him and his lovely wife, Sandra Perira, and daughters K C and M L .

We have known him for many years. He is such a hard worker taking pride in everything he does. His work is always exceptional.

Recently I lost my husband and it is very difficult for a woman alone to care for a house and property. Wesley has been such a help to me in so many ways – always willing and sometimes just appearing and asking what he could do for me.

My friends and I would be lost without him. He is definitely one of a kind – so honest, trustworthy, cheerful, a true friend, and one of the best workers I have ever employed.

Most Sincerely,

RE: *Wesley Fonseca Pereira v. Loretta
Lynch, Attorney General*,
No. 16-1033 (1st Cir. argued Sept. 13,
2016); Agency No. A096-416-756

Dear Ms. Carter:

During oral argument in the above-captioned case, the Court asked what procedures the government is following in cases that are affected by the Third Circuit's decision in Orozco-Velasquez v. Att'y Gen., 817 F.3d 78 (3d Cir. 2016).

We shared the Court's inquiry with both the Executive Office for Immigration Review, which includes the Board of Immigration Appeals and immigration courts, and with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), whose attorneys represent the Department of Homeland Security in administrative removal proceedings before the Board and immigration judges. We are advised that the general procedures for determining the date and time of removal hearings have not changed. See 8 C.F.R. § 1003.18. We are further advised, however, that both agencies are familiar with the Third Circuit's holding, and, following Orozco-Velasquez, ICE offices within the Third Circuit do not contend that service of the notice to appear activates the "stop-time" rule at 8 U.S.C. § 1229b(d)(1)(A) in similar cases in that circuit if the notice to appear does not include the hearing date and location.
