RE: A.R. Thane Ritchie, et al. v. Huizenga Managers Fund, LLC, No. 17-610

To the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4, Respondent Huizenga Managers Fund, LLP¹ respectfully files this motion for a 21-day extension of time in which to file its response to the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari in this case. The current due date for the response is November 24, 2017, and a 21-day extension would create a new due date of December 15, 2017.

On November 15, 2017, Respondent received a notification from the law firm of Potter Anderson Corroon LLP, stating that it intends to file an amicus curiae brief on behalf of several individuals supporting the Petitioners. In a separate letter, Respondent has notified the Clerk that it does not consent to the filing of any such brief, because the proposed amici failed to provide Respondent with notice of their intention to file at least 10 days prior to the due date, as required by Supreme Court Rule 37.2(a). Respondent therefore expects the proposed amici will file a motion seeking leave to file their brief.

Granting Respondent's request for a 21-day extension will allow time for the resolution of the proposed amici's expected motion, and, in the event leave to file is granted in spite of the failure to provide adequate notice, for the Respondent to analyze and respond to the amicus brief in its response brief.

Sincerely,

Christopher J. Barber
