ORDER

A second pretrial conference was held on June 22, 2016, before the undersigned Magistrate Judge. Participating in the conference were Barre Dumas, counsel for Defendant Terance Martez Gamble, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Michele O'Brien, counsel for the Government.

At the pretrial conference, Ms. O'Brien requested a continuance, and subsequent to the conference, she filed a written motion. (Doc 22). Ms. O'Brien reported that this case will be resolved without a trial; however, additional time is needed because the U.S. Attorney's Office has requested and is awaiting direction from the Department of Justice about resolution of this case due to the fact that Defendant has already been prosecuted in state court based on the facts alleged in the indictment in this case. Ms. O'Brien also reported that she fully expects to receive direction from the Department of Justice within the next couple of days. Counsel for Defendant reported that Defendant does not oppose the Government's continuance request, and that it is in Defendant's best interest to await a decision from the Department of Justice before proceeding in this case.

Upon consideration, the undersigned concludes that the ends of justice served by continuing this action for one term outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C.A. § 3161(h)(7)(A). This is the first trial setting, and the Government is awaiting direction from the Department of Justice about resolution of this case. The undersigned finds, under the circumstances, that continuing this action pending the decision from the Department of Justice is reasonable under the circumstances. 18 U.S.C.A. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Accordingly, the request for a continuance is GRANTED. This case is hereby CONTINUED to the August 2016 criminal term, with jury selection on August 1, 2016. For purposes of the Speedy Trial Act, any delay resulting from this continuance is excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

Counsel for Defendant shall file, on or before June 24, 2016, a Speedy Trial Waiver executed by Defendant and his counsel. The waiver shall include language which reflects that (A) counsel has discussed the reasons for seeking a continuance with Defendant; (B) Defendant understands that the time requested in the motion to continue trial of this matter will be excluded from any calculations of time under the Speedy Trial Act; and (C) with this understanding and knowledge, Defendant agrees to a continuance of this action to the August 2016 trial term.

The Clerk is directed to refer this action to Magistrate Judge Nelson.

DONE this 23rd day of June, 2016.

PLEA AGREEMENT

The defendant, TERANCE MARTEZ GAMBLE, represented by his counsel, and the United States of America have reached a plea agreement in this case, pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the terms and conditions of which are as follows:

RIGHTS OF THE DEFENDANT

1. The defendant understands his rights as follows:
 - a. To be represented by an attorney;
 - b. To plead not guilty;
 - c. To have a trial by an impartial jury;
 - d. To confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses and produce other evidence in his defense; and
 - e. To not be compelled to incriminate himself.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND PLEA OF GUILTY

2. The defendant waives rights b through e, listed above, and pleads guilty to Count One of the Indictment, charging a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1), possession of a firearm by a prohibited person.
3. The defendant understands that the statements he makes under oath in the plea of guilty must be completely truthful and that he can be prosecuted for making false statements or perjury, or receive a perjury enhancement at sentencing, for any false statements he makes intentionally in this plea of guilty.
4. The defendant expects the Court to rely upon his statements here and his response to any questions that he may be asked during the guilty plea hearing.
5. The defendant is not under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or narcotics. He is certain that he is in full possession of his senses and is mentally competent to understand this Plea Agreement and the guilty plea hearing which will follow.
6. The defendant has had the benefit of legal counsel in negotiating this Plea Agreement. He has discussed the facts of the case with his attorney, and his attorney has explained to the defendant the essential legal elements of the criminal charge which has been brought against him. The defendant's attorney has also explained to the defendant his understanding of the United States' evidence and the law as it relates to the facts of his offense.

7. The defendant understands that the United States has the burden of proving each of the legal elements of the criminal charge beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant and his counsel have discussed possible defenses to the charge. The defendant believes that his attorney has represented him faithfully, skillfully, and diligently, and he is completely satisfied with the legal advice of his attorney.
8. A separate document, entitled Factual Resume, will be submitted to the Court as evidence at the guilty plea hearing. The Factual Resume is incorporated by reference into this Plea Agreement. The defendant and the United States agree that the Factual Resume is true and correct. Alterations to the Plea Agreement or Factual Resume initialed only by the defendant and his counsel are not part of this agreement and are not agreed to by the United States.
9. This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force, threats, promises, or representations, apart from those representations set forth in this Plea Agreement. There have been no promises from anyone as to the particular sentence that the Court will impose. The defendant is pleading guilty because he is guilty.
10. The defendant also knowingly and voluntarily waives all rights, whether asserted directly or through a representative, to receive from the United States after sentencing any further records, reports, or documents pertaining to the investigation or prosecution of this matter. This waiver includes, but is not limited to, rights under the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act of 1974.

PENALTY

11. The maximum penalty the Court could impose as to Count One of the Indictment is:
 - a. 10 years imprisonment (However, it is possible that the defendant could be subject to a mandatory term of imprisonment of 15 years to life pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(e));
 - b. A fine not to exceed $250,000;
 - c. A term of supervised release of three years, which would follow any term of imprisonment (However, it is possible that the defendant could be subject to a term of supervised release of up to five years pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(e)). If the defendant violates the conditions of supervised release, he could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
 - d. A mandatory special assessment of $100.00; and
 - e. Such restitution as may be ordered by the Court.

SENTENCING

12. The Court will impose the sentence in this case. The United States Sentencing Guidelines are advisory and do not bind the Court. The defendant has reviewed the application of the Guidelines with his attorney and understands that no one can predict with certainty what the sentencing range will be in this case until after a pre-sentence investigation has been completed and the Court has ruled on the results of that investigation. The defendant understands that at sentencing, the Court may not necessarily sentence the defendant in accordance with the Guidelines. The defendant understands that he will not be allowed to withdraw his guilty plea if the advisory guideline range is higher than expected, or if the Court departs or varies from the advisory guideline range.

13. The defendant understands that this Plea Agreement does not create any right to be sentenced in accordance with the Sentencing Guidelines, or below or within any particular guideline range, and fully understands that determination of the sentencing range or guideline level, or the actual sentence imposed, is solely the discretion of the Court.
14. The United States will provide all relevant sentencing information to the Probation Office for purposes of the pre-sentence investigation. Relevant sentencing information includes, but is not limited to, all facts and circumstances of this case and information concerning the defendant's conduct and background.
15. Both the defendant and the United States are free to allocute fully at the time of sentencing.
16. The defendant agrees to tender $100.00 to the U.S. District Court Clerk in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case. The United States reserves the right to withdraw any favorable recommendations it may agree to within this document if the defendant fails to pay the special assessment prior to or at the time of his sentencing.

RESTITUTION

17. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3556 and 3663(A), restitution is mandatory. The defendant agrees to make full restitution in an amount to be determined by the Court at sentencing.

FORFEITURE

18. The defendant agrees to confess the forfeiture to the United States of all properties which represent proceeds of his criminal activities or which facilitated any aspect of these illegal activities.

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

19. The Defendant expressly authorizes the U.S. Attorney's Office to obtain a credit report in order to evaluate the Defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. In order to facilitate the collection of financial obligations to be imposed in connection with this prosecution, the Defendant agrees to disclose fully all assets in which the Defendant has any interest or over which the Defendant exercises control, directly or indirectly, including those held by a spouse, nominee or other third party.

UNITED STATES' OBLIGATIONS

20. The United States will not bring any additional charges against the defendant related to the facts underlying the Indictment and will move to dismiss any remaining charges against the defendant once sentence is imposed in this case. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Alabama and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities.

21. The United States will recommend to the Court that the defendant be sentenced at the low end of the advisory sentencing guideline range as determined by the Court.

LIMITED WAIVER OF RIGHT TO APPEAL AND WAIVER OF COLLATERAL ATTACK

22. As part of the bargained-for exchange represented in this plea agreement, and subject to the limited exceptions below, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to file any direct appeal or any collateral attack, including a motion to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence under 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Accordingly, the defendant will not challenge his guilty plea, conviction, or sentence in any district court or appellate court proceedings.

a. EXCEPTIONS. The defendant reserves the right to timely file a direct appeal challenging:

- (1) any sentence imposed in excess of the maximum statutory penalty provided by 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) (10 years) or 18 U.S.C. § 924(e) (life), whichever is deemed to apply by the court in its sole discretion at sentencing;
- (2) any sentence which constitutes an upward departure or variance from the advisory guideline range.

The defendant also reserves the right to claim ineffective assistance of counsel in a direct appeal or § 2255 motion;

- (3) the Court's Order entered on June 21, 2016, denying the Defendant's Motion to Dismiss.

23. If the United States files a notice of appeal and such appeal is authorized by the Solicitor General, the defendant is released from the appellate waiver.

24. The defendant further reserves the right to timely move the district court for an amended sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3582 in the event of a future retroactive amendment to the Sentencing Guidelines which would affect the sentence.
25. ~~If the defendant receives a sentence within or below the advisory guideline range, this plea agreement shall serve as the defendant's express directive to defense counsel to timely file a "Notice of Non-Appeal" following sentencing, signed by the defendant.~~

VIOLATION OF AGREEMENT

26. The defendant understands that if he breaches any provision of this Plea Agreement, the United States will be free from any obligations imposed by this agreement, but all provisions of the agreement remain enforceable against the defendant. In the exercise of its discretion, the United States will be free to prosecute the defendant on any charges of which it has knowledge. In such event, the defendant agrees not to assert any objections to prosecution that he might have under the Sixth Amendment and/or Speedy Trial Act.
27. In addition, if the defendant is released from detention prior to sentencing, he understands that the United States will no longer be bound by this agreement if he violates any condition of his release prior to sentencing or prior to serving his sentence after it is imposed.

ENTIRETY OF AGREEMENT

28. This document is the complete statement of the agreement between the defendant and the United States and may not be altered unless done so in writing and signed by all the parties.

FACTUAL RESUME

The defendant, TERANCE MARTEZ GAMBLE, admits the allegations of Count One of the Indictment.

ELEMENTS OF THE OFFENSE

TERANCE MARTEZ GAMBLE understands that in order to prove a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1), as charged in Count One of the Indictment, the United States must prove:

First: the Defendant knowingly possessed a firearm in or affecting interstate commerce, as charged; and Second: before the Defendant possessed the firearm the Defendant had been convicted in a court of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term in excess of one year, that is, a felony offense.

OFFENSE CONDUCT

Defendant, TERANCE MARTEZ GAMBLE, admits in open court and under oath that the following statement is true and correct and constitutes evidence in this case. This statement of facts is provided solely to assist the Court in determining whether a factual basis exists for TERANCE MARTEZ GAMBLE'S plea of guilty. The statement of facts does not contain each and every fact known to TERANCE MARTEZ GAMBLE and to the United States concerning the defendant's involvement in the charges set forth in the plea agreement.

GAMBLE was previously convicted of Robbery, Second Degree on September 4, 2008, in the Circuit Court of Mobile County, Alabama, Case No. CC 2007-4148.

On November 20, 2015, at approximately 11:00 p.m. an Officer of the Mobile Police Department was on patrol in the area of Cottage Hill Road and Demetroplis Road when he observed a black Dodge Charge travelling westbound on Cottage Hill Road with the driver side headlight out. The Officer turned around and initiated a traffic stop in the nearby McDonald's parking lot. Upon approaching the vehicle the Officer noticed the strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. When asked about the odor the driver (GAMBLE) said he had just dropped off a friend but otherwise there were no illegal drugs in the vehicle. The Officer removed GAMBLE from the vehicle and performed a pat down and a search of the driver's area. The odor of marijuana grew stronger around the steering column and Officers discovered a void in that area, and removed a loaded firearm (a SCCY, model CPX-2, 9mm handgun, serial number 136633), digital scale and two baggies of marijuana. The firearm was manufactured outside the State of Alabama and therefore its presence affected interstate commerce.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of : Three (3) years.

Special Conditions:

Defendant shall enroll in and complete an intensive substance abuse treatment program for the first three months of supervised release, as directed by the Probation Office; then, the defendant shall submit to periodic urine surveillance and/or breath, saliva and skin tests for the detection of drug abuse as directed by the probation officer. The defendant may incur costs associated with such detection efforts, based upon ability to pay as determined by the probation officer; the defendant shall participate in an assessment or a program, inpatient or outpatient, for the treatment of drug and/or alcohol addiction, dependency or abuse, as instructed and as deemed necessary by the probation officer. The defendant may incur costs associated with such drug/alcohol detection and treatment, based upon the ability to pay, as determined by the probation officer; and, the defendant shall submit his person, house, residence, vehicle(s), papers, [computers (as defined by 18 U.S.C. Section 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices of media], business or place of employment, and any other property under the defendant's control to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search in accordance with this condition may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. No fine was imposed, as the defendant is unable to pay. A $100 special monetary assessment was imposed.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994: The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.

- The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment. The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court.

The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page.

[July 14, 2016, 9:04 a.m. The defendant is present with counsel in open court.]

THE CLERK: We are on the record for a change of plea hearing in Criminal No. 16-90, United States of America versus Terance Gamble.

What says the Government?

MS. O'BRIEN : The United States is ready.

THE CLERK: And the defendant ?

MR. DUMAS: The defendant is here and ready.

THE COURT: Mr. Gamble —

Would you pull the microphone ?

Mr. Gamble, I need to ask you some questions to determine whether you are competent to plea and whether this is a voluntary plea. If you would raise your right hand, please.

[Defendant duly sworn.]

THE COURT: Okay. Give me your full name, please.

THE DEFENDANT: Terance Martez Gamble.

THE COURT: How old are you?

THE DEFENDANT: Twenty-seven.

THE COURT: How far did you go in school?

THE DEFENDANT: To the 11th grade.

THE COURT: Can you read, write, and understand the English language?

Page 3

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Have you had any problems communicating with your attorney?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Did he explain the charge to you?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Have you ever been treated for any type of mental illness?

THE DEFENDANT: Younger.

THE COURT: Say it again.

THE DEFENDANT: Younger.

THE COURT: "Younger"?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: When you were younger you were?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: What type was that?

THE DEFENDANT: I was just going to counseling.

THE COURT: You went to counseling. It was for bipolar or ADD or any of those kind of things?

THE DEFENDANT: Something like that.

THE COURT: What?

THE DEFENDANT: Something like that.

THE COURT: Do you take any medication for that ?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: And have you ever been treated for drug addiction?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And when was that ?

THE DEFENDANT: I'm not sure of the year.

THE COURT: Okay. When you were a teenager? In your early twenties?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Were you incarcerated at the time?

THE DEFENDANT: Kind of. Something.

THE COURT: Something like that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Do you remember where you were treated?

THE DEFENDANT: I want to say at The Bridge.

THE COURT: At The Bridge?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. Are you currently under the influence of any drug , alcohol, or medication?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Dumas, have you had any problems communicating with your client ?

MR. DUMAS: I have not, Your Honor. We've met several times, and he seems to be able to communicate and understand me.

THE COURT: Okay. And did you and your attorney talk about possible defenses to this case?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. You talked about the facts, and then you talked about if you went to trial how you might defend yourself?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And, after doing so, are you satisfied with his advice to you that you should plead guilty?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And are you satisfied with his representation in general of you?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Now, you are pleading pursuant to a plea agreement. The plea agreement provides that in return for your guilty plea, the Government is going to recommend that you be sentenced at the low end of the guidelines. It also provides you the opportunity, if you wish, to cooperate with the Government.

Is that the way you understand it?

MR. DUMAS: Actually, it does not contain a 5K provision, Your Honor .

THE COURT: I'm sorry. You are absolutely right. It does not. It just has a recommendation of low end of the guidelines.

Is that the way you understand it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, did you read that plea agreement and discuss it with your attorney before you signed it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And has anybody promised you anything different than what's included in that plea agreement?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, the plea agreement does provide that you are waiving your right appeal the sentence that I give you. Do you understand that?

MR. DUMAS: Your Honor, he's waiving the right to appeal a sentence if appropriately ordered. However, he is reserving an issue for appeal relative to a double jeopardy claim under the Fifth Amendment that was articulated in a Motion to Dismiss the indictment, which Your Honor denied.

THE COURT: Is that part of the plea agreement?

MS. O'BRIEN : It is, Your Honor. It's on page 7, subparagraph 3.

THE COURT: Oh, here it is. Okay.

MR. DUMAS: Justice Ginsburg, in a concurring opinion, wrote a very short concurrence wherein she stated that she believed that the issue of double jeopardy for prosecutions by the federal Government

THE COURT: Right, I'm familiar with that. In fact, I noted in here — okay. And so you are saying that he's already pled guilty to the same firearm in a state court proceeding?

MR. DUMAS: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, that is noted. Let me go through and read this directly to get this correctly in the record here. Sorry about that. I had actually attached Mr. Wiggins' plea agreement to this, and that's why I'm confused. Let me get back on track here.

All right. So in your case you are reserving the right to appeal any sentence imposed in excess of the statutory maximum, which is 922(g), which is up to 10 years in prison.

MR. DUMAS: That's correct.

THE COURT: Okay. Is there a question whether the 924 (e) applies?

MS. O'BRIEN : Your Honor, it appears from the probation officer conference report that the defendant has two prior crimes of violence, but, as I understand Your Honor's policy, if it turned out that he was Armed Career Criminal eligible pursuant to 924(e), you would allow the defendant to withdraw his plea.

THE COURT: Do you understand that?

MR. DUMAS: Actually, we did not discuss that. If you'll give me one minute, I'll make it clear to him.

THE COURT: Okay.

[The defendant and counsel confer off the record.]

Page 8

THE COURT: All right. So basically what I need to explain to you are there's very limited circumstances in which you could appeal. In other words, if you come in here and I give you a sentence that's below the statutory maximum or I give you a sentence that's within the guidelines, the only reason that you can appeal is to appeal the order that was entered on June the 21st, 2016, on your Motion to Dismiss.

Do you understand that? That's pretty much the only reason you are going to be able to appeal is based on the Court's denial of your Motion to Dismiss. Do you understand?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Has anybody tried to force you to plead guilty today?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, you are pleading to a felony offense. You lose the right to vote, the right to hold public office, and the right to a firearm. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: There are sentencing guidelines that apply to your case. Have you gone over those with your attorney?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: You understand those are just advisory, and I'm not required to follow them?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Now, you do have a right to continue in your plea of not guilty. We would have a trial. At trial, you would be presumed innocent. The Government would have to prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. At trial, you would have the right to the assistance of counsel. You would have the right to cross-examine the Government's witnesses. You'd have the right to compel witnesses to attend the trial on your behalf.

You'd also have the right to choose to testify or not testify. If you chose not to testify, that fact cannot be used against you.

But do you understand by pleading guilty today, you are giving up those rights and there will not be a trial?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Is that what you want to do?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. If the Government would give me the elements and the facts, please.

MS. O'BRIEN : Your Honor, in order to prove the defendant guilty of a violation of Title 18 United States Code Section 922(g)(1), as charged in Count 1 of the indictment, the United States must prove that the defendant knowingly possessed a firearm in or affecting interstate commerce; and that before the defendant possessed the firearm, he had been convicted in a court of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term in excess of one year, that is, a felony offense.

The United States would expect the evidence to show that the defendant was previously convicted of Robbery Second Degree here in Mobile County in 2008.

Subsequent to that conviction, on November 20th, 2015, at approximately 11:00 p.m., an officer of the Mobile Police Department was on patrol in the area of Cottage Hill Road and Demopolis Road. And he observed a vehicle, a black Dodge Charger, traveling west on Cottage Hill Road, observing the defendant with a headlight out.

The officer initiated a traffic stop. Upon approaching the vehicle, the officer noticed the strong odor of marijuana emanating from the vehicle. When asked about the odor, the defendant said he had just dropped off a friend, but, otherwise, there were no illegal drugs in the vehicle.

The officer removed the defendant from the vehicle and performed a pat-down search and a search of the driver's area.

The odor of marijuana was stronger around the steering column, and the officer discovered a void in that area and removed from that area a loaded firearm, a 9-millimeter handgun, described in the indictment and the factual resume, digital scales, and two baggies of marijuana. The firearm was manufactured outside the State of Alabama, and, therefore, its presence affected interstate commerce.

Page 11

THE COURT: Do you agree the Government could prove those facts against you?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And how do you plead?

THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

THE COURT: It's the finding of the Court in the case of the United States versus Terance Martez Gamble that the defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea and that the defendant is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the plea and that the plea of guilty is a knowing and voluntary plea supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of the offense. The plea is accepted, and you're adjudicated guilty of Count 1.

There was one thing I did neglect to tell you. I was talking to you about the up to 10 years in prison, but there's also a $250,000 fine, 3 years supervised release, and $100 special assessment.

Do you understand those to be the penalties?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: All right. And you reaffirm your guilty plea?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. A written presentence report will be prepared by the probation officer, and you'll be interviewed. Your attorney may be present during that interview. They'll prepare a report.

Your sentencing date is set for October the 14th at 11: 00 o'clock. At that time you may speak on your own behalf, and you may present witnesses.

Do you have any questions?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

MR. DUMAS: Your Honor, if I may, just in an abundance of caution, make sure my record is clear. As Ms. O'Brien was going over the factual resume, I would submit to the Court that those are the very facts to which he pled guilty at the Circuit Court of Mobile County, Alabama, and it is that conviction which, of course, contributed to his consideration of the plea here, having already pled to it in state court. And it is that conviction which we would submit and did submit in our Motion to Dismiss the Indictment raises the issue of possible double jeopardy violations in this prosecution.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. I think the record is clear. Thank you.

All right. Anything else?

MS. O'BRIEN : No, ma'am.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. DUMAS: Thank you, Judge.
