US Supreme Court of the United States
1 First St. NE
Washington, DC 20543

Sat. November 4, 2017

Dear Mr. Harris and Mr. Higgins,

~~Thanks for your letter of November 3, 2017. The sexual orientation discrimination cases (3 from Aspen and 1 from Washington, DC) cases are currently overlapping so please allow me to clear what appears to be a misperception on the case filed on Sept. 12, 2017 due back to you on November 21, 2017. That case, 17-3152 is the appeal to the US Supreme Court from Superior Court of DC, dismissed by Judge John Campbell, previously 16CAB 8423. I was assaulted by Tim Cole, et. al. the new British minister of my DC church, Christ Episcopal of Georgetown when I asked to become a member and to schedule my lesbian wedding. It appears that he conspired with Jonathan Brice, also a British minister from London at my Aspen Church, Christ Episcopal. The new British Anglican brethren are trying to reverse Obergefell (2015).~~

The currently appealed 3 cases 2017SC257, 2017SC 258 and 2017SC251, denied by the Colorado Supreme Court on July 31, 2017, were submitted to you on October 31, 2017. They are the alleged criminal misdemeanors that correlate to the docketed habeas corpus cases docketed on January 16, 2016; 16-7537, 16-7538, and 16-7539. The Writ of Certiorari in the habeas corpus cases were denied by US Supreme Court on April 17, 2017 based upon Rule 39.8. The 2 church arrests denied by the Colorado Supreme Court are in enclosed with corrections.

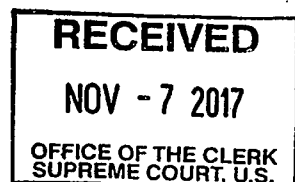

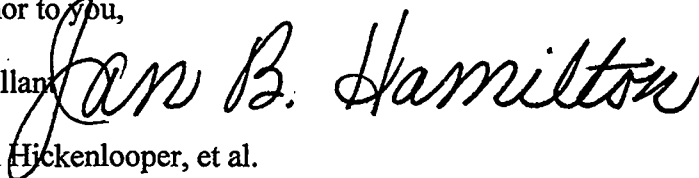

I will submit 2017 SC 271 false arrest at Christ Episcopal, Aspen separately. The impact of the mandated "Conversion Therapy" has long-term effects, continuing for 13 years. Now we must use these cases to tell the world that God loves all the same, gay and straight, no more bullying. They are inextricably connected; (a) British (England) preacher at Christ Episcopal, Aspen, Jonathan Brice, called Tim Cole, (Scotland) Christ Episcopal Church, Georgetown, Washington, DC resulting in criminal conspiracy violations of Hate Crimes Act 18USC249, in violation of the 1st, 11th, and 14th Amendments blocking my ability to earn a fair wage, extortion with theft.

In summary, there are two separate sexual orientation discrimination Hate Crimes incidences appealed on different dates which hold merit (a) Supreme Court of Colorado, due Oct. 31, 2017 and (b) The Superior Court of the District of Columbia due November 21, 2017. Thanks for being great clerks and keeping me on track.

With gratitude and honor to you,

Jan B. Hamilton, Appellant
