SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Armando Despaigne Zulveta

(Petitioner)

v.

No.: 17-7043

United states District court for the District of South Carolina

(Respondent)

SUPPLEMENTAL COMPLAINT

Here comes Petitioner Armando Despaigne Zulveta pursuant FRPRule 15 requests this Honorable Court for Supplemental Pleading to correct mistake and the court should freely give leave when justice so requires.

Section "B", page 7, in reference to State Automobile Mutual Insurance's response to Local Rule 26.01(A)(C)(1)(2)(3) in which Respondent reported to Lower Court only one (1) subsidiary/afiliation regarding their financial assessment Petitioner Zulvetaq made mistake when state (SEE APPENDIX A #1-2). Instead it should be (SEE APPENDIX B #1-2).

Over this matter Lower Court failed to implement Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1. The purpose of the rule is to assist judges in determining whether they must recuse themselves because of a "financial interest in the subject matter in controversy." Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 3C(1)(c)(1972. In doing so Judge Herlong, Jr., amount to "allegation of discriminatory treatment" when overlooked or ignored serious lapses by his proceeding case. Lower Court in numerous occassions failed to remande this case to the South Carolina Disciplinary Counsel Board for further proceedings particularly, in reference to Respondents TC Unlimited Inc., and Tim Case's death threat pictures of Petitioner's family sent during Discovery.

On this day the 19th of December, 2017.

Respectfully Submitted;

Armando Despaigne Zulveta 12/19/2017
