WORKERS COMPENSATION LAW passing 1979

32-1519.

Collection of defaulted payments.

(a) IN Case of default by the employer in the payment of Compensation due under any award of Compensation for a period of 30 days after the Compensation is due and payable, the person to whom such Compensation is payable may, Within 2 years after such default, make application to the Mayor for a Supplementary order declaring the amount of the default. After investigation, notice and hearing, as provided in 32-1520, the Mayor shall make a supplementary order, declaring the amount of the default, which shall be filed in the same manner as the Compensation order. In case of payment in default is an installment of the award the Mayor may, in his discretion, declare the whole of the award as the amount in default. The applicant may file a certified copy of such supplementary order with the Clerk of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. Such supplementary order of the Mayor shall be final, and the court shall, upon the filing of the copy, enter judgment for the amount declared in default by the supplementary order. No fee shall be required for filing the supplementary order nor for entry of judgment thereon, and the applicant shall not be liable for costs in a proceeding for review of the judgment unless the Court shall otherwise direct. The Court shall modify such judgment to conform to any later compensation order upon presentation of a certified copy.
