

IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

JORGE A. MARTINEZ

Petitioner

v

No.: 17-7487.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Respondent.

PETITION FOR REHEARING.

Petitioner, JORGE A. MARTINEZ, an actually innocent Federal prisoner with an unconstitutional sentence of two life terms for the deaths of two of his patients who died as a result of illegal drug overdoses with drugs that Petitioner did not prescribe to them, respectfully petitions the United States Supreme Court to reconsider Petitioner's Certiorari Petition in this Case, denied on February 20, 2018 for the following reasons and grounds not previously presented, in compliance with Rule 44 of the Rules of this Court:

1. The Right to be Heard and the Constitutional Right of redress Grievances; Petitioner has not had the opportunity to have the merits of his claims of Actual Innocence been heard by any lower court.
2. Petitioner has an Equal Protection Right than to McQuiggin and Schlup to have the merits of his claims of Actual Innocence adjudicated. cf Evitt v Lucey: The Supreme Court remanded the case of Dr. Volkman to the Sixth Circuit in Direct Appeal (No. 13-8827) to be reconsidered on the light of Burrage; Petitioner has the same rights than Dr. Volkman and according to Rule 60(b) a Showing of Actual Innocence trumps any time limits in the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, cf Penney v United States, 2017

US App Lexis 16875.

3. The Interests of Justice directs any Court of Justice and Equity to prevent that any Innocent Individual be punished for crimes he did not commit.
4. It is a Fundamental Miscarriage of Justice to deprive an innocent individual of his Liberty for crimes that he did not commit and the Unites States Supreme Court has a moral obligation to prevent that Lower Courts commit this type of injustices.

Respectfully Submitted today March 27, 2018, by

Jorge A. Martinez, MD
Petitioner Pro Se.

IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

JORGE A. MARTINEZ

v

No.: 17-7487

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

CERTIFICATE OF GROUNDS FOR REHEARING,
IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 44
OF THE SUPREME COURT.

This will CERTIFY that the Petition for Rehearing by this Petitioner, dated March 27, 2018 is based on "other substantial grounds not previously presented," i.e.:

1. The Right to be heard and Right to Redress Grievances.
2. The Constitutional Equal Right Protection under the Law.
3. The Interest of Justice, and
4. The Equity purpose of prevent Fundamental Miscarriages of Justice, foundation of this Supreme Court of the United States.

March 27, 2018.

Jorge A. Martinez, MD
Petitioner, pro se.

IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

JORGE A. MARTINEZ

v

No.: 17-7487

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

CERTIFICATE OF GOOD FAITH.

This will CERTIFY that the adjuct Petition for Rehearing, in the above Case, is filed for Good Faith, by Petitioner, an Actually Innocent Federal Prisoner, who has not have his claims of Actual Innocence adjudicated by any Federal Court; further the Petitioner CERTIFIES that there is no malice involved no any other bad faith intentions like delay or legal strategies but to obtain Justice from this Court.

All stated under Oath, today March 27, 2018..

Jorge A. Martinez, MD
Petitioner, pro se.