QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

The timely issue of my case rest with the representation by Patrick Towe who said he was an attorney, who could file post-conviction motions and petitions in state and federal courts. Mr. Towe, tricked me and my mom into paying for attorney fees, when in fact Mr. Towe is not an licensed attorney and violated State and federal laws by impersonating an attorney. Also, violated my Constitutional rights to the U.S. 5th, 6th and 14th Amendments. This placed me in an unfair situation to legally challenge my state conviction.

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

United States Constitutional Rights to the 5th, 6th and 14th amendments.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

My conviction was based on what my attorney told me to say, and promises that were made that I would not receive more than 10 years. Once I started to argue my case, my mother Ghislaine Vesitis hired Patrick L. Towe to represent me in filings in state and federal courts. Mr. Towe, told my mother that he was an attorney and that he and his firm would fix the errors in my case. Law enforcement contacted my mother during my appeal from U.S. District Court to the U.S. Court of Appeals, stating that Patrick Towe was not an attorney and he had been paying inmates who were challenging their convictions to obtain money unlawfully. At the time the U.S. District Court denied my claim on May 11th, 2017, when I received this from the court, I mailed the denial letter to Mr. Towe, at that time Mr. Towe, contacted my mother Ghislaine Vesitis and stated to her that he had been informed by judges that my petition was granted and I would be back in court within 6 months to a year. By the time my mother was contacted by law enforcement about Mr. Towe, the 30 day deadline had passed and I tried to notify the courts of these circumstances to no avail. Now I have submitted proof of evidence to corroborate my statement of the facts.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Due to unlawful acts by Patrick L. Towe, impersonating an attorney deprived me of filing my petition and appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals 4th Circuit in a timely manner. Exhibits in my hand written Appendix is evidence and proof of my statements and respectfully request this Honorable Court to allow me to go back and proceed with the appointment of counsel to resolve the flagrant violations of my constitutional rights. Law enforcement with the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office stated this case to be active and Patrick L. Towe, has been charged with crimes related directly to my case, and they will be inclined to provide this court with direct evidence upon this court's request or order to the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office. I respectfully request this Court to allow me to proceed by granting this petition and give wide discretion, because of my inability to apply the laws and constitutional violations appropriately.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
