Re: Harvey Anderson v. Venture Express, In the Supreme Court of the United States, Case No. 17-8555

Dear Mr. Bickell:

I represent Respondent Venture Express, Inc. named in the Petition for Writ of Certiorari filed by the Petitioner, Harvey Anderson, pro se, bearing Case No. 17-8555. The Petition was first submitted in September 2017, but was only recently docketed on April 18, 2018, after multiple attempts by the Petitioner to comply with the Court's rules. Venture Express's Brief in Opposition ("Brief") is currently due on May 18, 2018. Pursuant to Supreme Court of the United States Rule 30.4, please accept this letter as Venture Express's Motion for an Extension of Time to file its Opposition Brief to the Petition.

Venture Express respectfully requests an extension of twenty-one (21) days, up to and including June 8, 2018, to submit its Brief for the following reasons. First, although the Petition was docketed on April 18, 2018, counsel for Respondent did not receive notice of the docketing until May 2, 2018. See enclosed Notice and Envelope, which was postmarked on April 30, 2018. Second, as of the date of this letter, Respondent has not received a filed copy of the docketed Petition. Third, though undersigned counsel has worked diligently to try to meet the original May 18 filing deadline despite having only fifteen (15) days in which to do so, due to travel and other obligations of undersigned counsel, Respondent needs additional time to prepare and submit a well-organized and polished Brief.

The requested extension is not made for the purpose of delay and is instead necessary to permit completion of the Brief and vigorously defend Venture Express' interests in this matter. Moreover, the requested extension will not prejudice any party in this case. Indeed, Petitioner took over six (6) months to submit a compliant Petition, which was not docketed until April 18, 2018.

(Respondent)

To BAKER DONERSON Counsel for Respondent:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to Rule 12.3 that a petition for a writ of certiorari in the above-entitled case was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States on September 9, 2017, and placed on the docket April 18, 2018. Pursuant to Rule 15.3, the due date for a brief in opposition is Friday, May 18, 2018. If the due date is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal legal holiday, the brief is due on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or federal legal holiday.

Beginning November 13, 2017, parties represented by counsel must submit filings through the Supreme Court's electronic filing system. Paper remains the official form of filing, and electronic filing is in addition to the existing paper submission requirement. Attorneys must register for the system in advance, and the registration process may take several days. Further information about the system can be found at <https://www.supremecourt.gov/filingandrules/electronicfiling.aspx>.

Unless the Solicitor General of the United States represents the respondent, a waiver form is enclosed and should be sent to the Clerk only in the event you do not intend to file a response to the petition.

Only counsel of record will receive notification of the Court's action in this case. Counsel of record must be a member of the Bar of this Court.
