Re: County of Loudoun, Virginia v. Dulles Duty Free, LLC, No. 17-904

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for respondent Dulles Duty Free, LLC, in this case, and I am writing to request a 30-day extension of time in which to file a response to the petition for a writ of certiorari. The petition was docketed on December 19, 2017 and response is currently due January 25, 2018. Under Rule 30.4, counsel hereby requests an extension of 30 days, to and including February 26, 2018.

I have substantial briefing and argument obligations in the coming month, including a reply brief due in this Court on January 2, 2018 and oral argument in this Court on January 9, 2018 in Collins v. Virginia, No. 16-1027. I also have January deadlines in the Ninth Circuit in Dana Gold, et al. v. Lumber Liquidators, Inc., 17-80246. I have conferred with counsel of record for petitioner, who consents to this extension.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Fitzgerald
