Honorable Scott S. Harris
Clerk
Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D.C. 20543

Re: Robert Homrich v. United States, No. 17-9045

Dear Mr. Harris:

The petition for a writ of certiorari in the above-captioned case was filed on May 7, 2018, and placed on the docket on May 24, 2018. On June 1, 2018, the government waived its right to respond to the petition, and the petition has been distributed for the Court's conference of June 21, 2018. In light of developments subsequent to the government's waiver of its right to respond, including this Court's request for responses to petitions raising similar questions, the government now respectfully wishes to withdraw its waiver and submit a response to the petition.

The government's response to the petition was originally due June 25, 2018. The government now respectfully requests, under Rule 30.4 of the Rules of this Court, an extension of time to and including July 25, 2018, within which to file the government's response. This extension is requested to complete preparation of the government's response.

Sincerely,

Noel J. Francisco
Solicitor General
