

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

ROBERT H. BARNETT, PRO SE
Petitioner,

VS.

COURT OF APPEALS
CASE NO. 17-5715

LAUREL COUNTY DETENTION CENTER, ET AL.,
Respondent.

JURISDICTION

The decision by the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit affirmed the District Court's ruling denying Petitioner's 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights complaint in the Eastern District of Kentucky (London Division).

Consequently, Petitioner files the instant Application for a Writ of Certiorari under the authority of 28 U.S.C. § 1254(1).

MOTION SEEKING FORTY-FIVE DAY
ENLARGEMENT OF TIME IN WHICH TO SUBMIT
THE PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THIS COURT

COMES NOW, the Petitioner, Robert H. Barnett, Pro Se, to respectfully request, pursuant to Rule 30 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States, an extension of the deadline of February 2, 2018, for the filing of the Petition for Writ of Certiorari until June 16, 2018.

As grounds for this Motion, Petitioner respectfully advises the Court that, a forty-five (45) day enlargement of time will provide Petitioner the needed opportunity to perform the required research necessary to support his position and obtain previous Orders issued by the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. This request is not interposed for dilatory purposes, and will not prejudice the parties in the case. This is the first such extension requested by Petitioner Barnett, acting in a pro se capacity, who is presently incarcerated in F.C.I. Beckley, Beaver, West Virginia 25813. In further support of this request, Barnett submits the following information to this Honorable Court:

1. Petitioner Barnett, a 78 year-old setuagenarian, possesses a third grade education which is lacking in any formal education or training in the field of practice of law;
2. Of critical import to this request is the indisputable fact Petitioner Barnett is in dire need of the assistance of law clerks and other individuals formally trained in the field of law at F.C.I. Beckley to continue to provide him with honest, admirable and exemplary advice and assistance on a daily basis;
3. Petitioner Barnett is a federally incarcerated inmate at F.C.I. Becklye, Beaver, West Virginia, where there is no legal assistance program or BOP staff trained in legal matters in which to assist inmates at this institution;
4. This federal institution is seriously lacking in available federal research materials and there is no access whatsoever to Westlaw, or other advanced tools necessary for in-depth research;

5. This institution and law library is frequently unavailable to inmates because of sporadic "lockdowns" caused by inclement weather such as fog, staff training, holiday(s), inmate disturbances, etc. that result in the closing of the law library. Moreover, the law library is available to inmates for only one (1) hour in the morning, one((1) hour in the afternoon, and three (3) hours in the evening.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons contained herein, Petitioner Barnett, Pro Se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court GRANT Petitioner the requested forty-five day enlargement of time that will better enable him to present all viable issues in a significant and meaningful manner.

Done this 18th day of April, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT H. BARNETT, PRO SE

Dear Clerk of the Court Harris:

Hello. I am writing your office and the Court today in regards to the above-styled subject and my fervent desire to definitively ascertain the status of my Motion Requesting a forty-five day Enlargement of Time to file my Petition For Writ of Certiorari. I am very much cognizant that the Court is quite strict on deadline(s) for Appellants and I do not want to waive or forfeit the opportunity to submit my Petition. Hence, my letter today seeking an update.

In conclusion, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your staff in advance for your anticipated cooperation and assistance in this extremely important matter. It is GREATLY APPRECIATED! I anxiously await your response. And, thank you again.

Respectfully, I am

Within Which To File A Petition For Writ Of Certiorari In
Robert H. Barnett v. Laurel County, Kentucky, et al That Was Returned On April 13, 2018, For Failure To Include Lower Court
Rulings From The Sixth Circuit Court Of Appeals

Dear Jacob C. Travers, Clerk:

Hello. I am writing your office and the Court today in regards to the above-styled subject matter and the enclosed corrected application that includes the lower court's opinion and ruling. I profusely apologize for any inconvenience this inadvertent failure on my part may have caused you, your staff or the Court. Moreover, I did take the time to read Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States, specifically Rule 30, paragraphs one and two on pages 40 and 41, regarding computation and extension of time and apparently overlooked the fact I was to include the lower court rulings with my motion.

In my efforts to cure the problem, as I am in dire need of the requested extension of time to file my petition for writ of certiorari, I have taken the necessary time and steps to type a "new" motion requesting an extension of time of 45 days and Certificate of Service with the lower court's opinion, decisions and rulings.

In conclusion, I have also included the "first" motion dated April 12, 2018, in the hopes your office and the Court will take this date into consideration when reviewing my request. With all due respect, I am amazed it took 34 days for my original motion to arrive at the Court. Your assistance in the matter is GREATLY APPRECIATED! I anxiously await your response.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert H. Barnett
