OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

Petitioner Lan Tu Trinh respectfully submits this Petition for Rehearing of the November 13, 2018, Order of this Court denying my petition for a writ of certiorari. Undersigned the petitioner attaches the certification required by this Court's Rule 44.2.

I, Lan Tu Trinh, submitted a petition for writ of certiorari concerning the sabotage, theft, fraudulent activities, and dissolution of my school, LT International Beauty School, Inc. (LTIBS), by my sister, Kathleen Lien Trinh. In that petition, I argued that Kathleen and her legal team committed many wrongdoings to ruin and destroy my business and livelihood. I started the company, built the company, and had 50% ownership of the company with Kathleen, but for over a decade I would be threatened, mistreated and emotionally abused by Kathleen. She gradually took control of the finances and administrative files necessary to the school's operation, restricting me from basic access and even withholding my salary, all without my consent or approval. I brought the matter to the Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia, PA more than two years ago, but the proceedings increased the damages against me while protecting and aiding Kathleen's interests.

Throughout the case, Kathleen produced fraudulent documents and false information, and the Court of Common Pleas did not punish her for her refusal to comply with orders or for providing false information. Even when I was able to retain some control of the school, she would actively attempt to sabotage the school's operations, and the results of her sabotage would be her reasons for wanting to dissolve the school against my will. In 2017 the lower court and the involved legal persons, including multiple lawyers and an appointed receiver, forced me to sign away the properties of the school's campuses to Kathleen in a false sale, pushed me out of my own premises for my business, and then dissolved my business. The case dragged on for more than 2 years until now without end, and the proceedings have trampled over fairness and law to clearly show favoritism towards the defendant. The Court of Common Pleas has denied me with the frequency of at least 17 times out of 18 motions, and I have raised many of these issues to the appellate courts, including the PA Supreme Court, and the police without success.

After they locked me out of my business, Kathleen opened a new school business (KAT Beauty School) on the properties I lost, which fulfilled Kathleen's original goals of kicking me out of business while managing her own. Yet the court still says the case has not reached a final decision because they want to destroy my life and business to cover up their illegal activities, even as she runs her own business in the locations I lost. I still have not received any compensation for my losses, which include the belongings I had inside the properties. All of the legal persons in this case claim the money is in the escrow account and that I would be compensated in 5 days after the hearing on July 10, 2017 (as seen in the hearing's transcript). I requested proof of this money multiple times, but no one in the lower court could provide adequate evidence to me.

The involved legal persons have abused their power to deny the petitioner of my rights as a business owner even though I deserve to live as a free person in this country. They have taken away my business by force through fraudulent means, conspiring with Kathleen for profit. They have attempted to ruin me, and they wish to make it difficult for me to live normally, as seen in their casual disregard of my health during court proceedings. The corruption of the legal persons in the City of Philadelphia has allowed for all of these illegal activities, fraudulence and theft to pass without any repercussions, while I am unable to defend myself or any of my rights.

CONCLUSION

The U.S. Supreme Court should grant my petition because the proceedings of this case in Philadelphia's Court of Common Pleas and the Appellate Court of Pennsylvania has been extremely unfair and discriminatory against me and my wellbeing. At this point, the courts have allowed and conspired with the defendant to destroy lives and take over everything that I fought to retain and preserve, despite her gross misconduct and illegal activities committed against me or without my knowledge for nearly two decades. For these reasons, Lan Trinh respectfully submits that it is proper to vacate the denial of certiorari in this case, and remand the case for further consideration of my claim in light of the issues at hand.

Respectfully submitted,

LAN TU TRINH
