OFFICE OF THE CLERK

PETITION FOR REHEARING

Petitioner, AARON OBEGINSKI submits this petition under RULE 44, present in good faith and not for delay. Petitioner has filed a second State Habeas Corpus No. 18-V-027 based on the facts described in this petition. Circumstances of a substantial and controlling effect have since intervened.

INTERVENING CIRCUMSTANCES

The state of Georgia is preventing an "ACTUAL INNOCENCE" claim from reaching the merits of my case.

JURISDICTION

The state court of last resort has so far departed from the accepted and usual

JURISDICTION (cont)

course of judicial proceedings, AND sanctioned such a departure by a lower court by;

- ① Allowing The lower court to re-define the well accepted definition of perjury.
- ② Not providing counsel under the VI amendment to the United states constitution, AND
- ③ Forcing petitioner to act as prosecutor without standing, and without NOTICE, Therefore, this calls for an exercise of this Court's supervisory power.

CONCLUSION

The use of children coaxed to lie, by promises from law enforcement, and law enforcement's shown perjury in this petition as state of Georgia's strategy to convict an "ACTUALLY INNOCENT" CITIZEN OF THE U.S., should be compelling reasons to review petitioner's writ of certiorari - We the people cry out!

Dated this 12th day of OCTOBER, 2018.
