Re: Wyoming v. Sam, No. 17-952

Dear Mr. Harris:

I represent respondent in the above-captioned matter. Following a first extension, the brief in opposition is currently due on March 7, 2018.

I respectfully request an additional 30-day extension, which would render the brief in opposition due on April 6, 2018. Regardless of this extension, the petition for certiorari will be considered this Term, and if the Court were to grant review, argument would be heard next Term.

Counsel for petitioner has consented to this request.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

---

Paul W. Hughes
