

In the
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Case No. _____

ANGEL L. ZENQUIS,
Petitioner,

Appeal No.: 17-14196-K

v.

District Court No.: 17-cv-60799-WPD

JULIE JONES,
Secretary Florida Department of Corrections,
Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

COMES NOW the Petitioner, Angel l. Zenquis, pro se, and moves this Honorable court pursuant to U.S. Supreme Court Rule 30 for an extension of time in which to file a petition for writ of certiorari presently due to be filed on June 27, 2018. In support thereof Petitioner would show the following:

1. Rule 30.2-3 of the U.S. Supreme Court authorizes an enlargement of time.
2. Petitioner is currently incarcerated at a State correctional institution and has only limited access to the law library or the legal assistance needed for preparation of a writ of certiorari.
3. English is not the Petitioner's first language and he is seeking the assistance of an English speaking clerk to assist him in preparing his writ.

4. In order to file a writ of certiorari the Petitioner needs time to gather all previous court orders, motions, and briefs relevant to his claim to properly present his issues to this court.
5. Petitioner is unable to consult with opposing counsel to ascertain whether there might be an objection to the instant motion for enlargement of time.
6. Petitioner requests an extension of 60- additional days in order to prepare and submit the writ.
7. This request is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

Wherefore, Petitioner requests that the court enter an order granting the motion for extension of time thereby, extending the time to file a writ of certiorari until August 25, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

Angel I. Zenquis #L80123
