v.
MICHAEL STOLLER

Defendant/Appellee/Respondent

ATTENTION: Justice Elena Kagan

On Appeal from the United States Court of Appeals
For the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals No.17-3280 final Decision dated 03-26-18 (Doc 27)
denying Petition For Rehearing En Banc

On Appeal from the Northern District of Illinois
Judge Presiding Jorge L. Alonso
Case No. 17-cv-07278 (Doc 20) Filed Nov. 01, 2017

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR LEAVE TO FILE WRIT OF CERTIORARI

NOW COMES the Petitioner, Michael Stoller, 26, a disabled person, a protected person, under the American's for Disability Act (ADA) and requests leave of Court for a sixty (60) day extension of time to file a Petition for Writ of Certiorari and states as follows:

Petitioner moves this Court under Supreme Court Rule 13 (5) for an extension of time to file Petitioner's Petition for Leave to File Writ of Certiorari.

The Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals issued their final appealable decision on March 26, 2018 denying the Petitioner's Petition for Rehearing and Rehearing En Banc. See Group Exhibit 1¹

. The erroneous ruling(s) (Group Exhibit 1) in Petitioner's Seven Circuit Court of are more than just bad decisions but will result in harmful precedent that should not be ignored because it conflicts with the Illinois and Federal Constitutions prohibition against laws abridging freedom of speech and the ability of citizens to petition the government, including the courts, for the redress of grievances. Ill.Const.1970, art. I, §§ 4, 12; U.S. Const. Amd. I.

The Bill of Rights to the Illinois Constitution provides that "all persons may speak, write and publish freely," Ill.Const.1970, art. I, § 4, and that every person shall find a certain remedy in the laws for all injuries and wrongs which he receives. He shall obtain justice by law, freely, completely, and promptly," Id. § 12.

The First Amendment, applicable to the States under the Fourteenth Amendment, states that Congress shall make no law abridging freedom of speech and "the right of the people peaceably to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." U.S. Const. Amd. I.

.Petitioner's motion for an extension is necessary in order to obtain counsel to make his case for Leave to File a Writ of Certiorari .

Petition for Writ of Certiorari is important and useful because of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals fundamental mistake(s) of law or faulty reasoning in their opinions. The Petitioner

¹ Group Exhibit 1 contains the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals final decision dated 03-26-18 denying the Petitioners request for an en blanc hearing, including the chain of orders starting from the Northern District of Illinois Judge Jorge L. Alonso Order dated November 1, 2017 (Doc 20) which precipitated Petitioner's Appeal has good reason to believe that the high court will want to correct the lower courts error(s) in favor of the Petitioner, which affects every person² in the United States³.

Petitioner is a 26 year old disabled person, on Social Security Disability, is requesting a 60 extension of time to retain counsel in his appeal to overturn the erroneous orders issued by the Seven Circuit Court of Appeals. Petitioner's appeal(s) have merit and raises interesting questions of law, which the High Court will want to hear.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner is thus requesting a 60 day extension of time, to obtain counsel in order to file a Writ of Certiorari up and until August 31, 2018.

What ever other relief that the court deems fit and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Stoller
