

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

RICHARD WESLEY BRYAN,                    ) Petitioner-Appellant,          )
                                          )
v.                                            )
                                          )
PATRICK GLEBE,                            )
    -----Respondent-Appellee.      )

Case No. .... Pending. ....
Ninth Cir. Case No. 17-35351
"MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF - TIME TO FILE CERTIORARI - BRIEF"

COMES NOW, RICHARD WESLEY BRYAN, hereinafter, Petitioner, pro se.

Petitioner Motions this Court for an "EXTENSION OF TIME" to file his 'certiorari brief,' because through no fault of his own, the Ninth Circuit has sat silent on his, "MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL," which Petitioner filed on February
6, 2018, pursuant to Ninth Circuit Rule 4-1.(e).

Petitioner believed/assumed that he gave his, "NOTICE TO FILE CERTIORARI" when he filed his "MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL," see second paragraph in Attached "MOTION FOR - APPOINTMENT FOR COUNSEL," ["Bryan MOTIONS this Court for - "Appointment Of Counsel," he wishes to file a Certiorari in the United States Supreme Court."]. Petitioner now realizes that he was probably suppose to file his "Notice of Certiorari" in this Court also. Please do not punish this pro se for his incompetence, his lacking in knowledge of exactly how all the Rule's and Procedure's apply.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Petitioner prays that this Court grant his "MOTION FOR - EXTENSION OF TIME" To File Certiorari Brief. Petitioner is asking for a 60 day extension with which to complete his - certiorari brief.

Motion For Extension of Time -1-

DECLARATION

I, RICHARD WESLEY BRYAN, hereby certifies that he understands the penalty of perjury, and files this "MOTION FOR - EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE CERTIORARI BRIEF." Petitioner files this Extension in good-faith. Petitioner also certifies that a copy of this "MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME" has been sent to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and to the Attorney General of Washington. See Attached, (GR 3.1).

DATED THIS 24th day of the month of April, 2018.

Respectfully Submitted By:

RICHARD WESLEY BRYAN, pro se
Coyote Ridge Corr. Center
P.O. Box 769
Connell, WA. 99326