Re: Original court documentation that was sent on Friday, October 27, 2017, from the main branch of the Cedar Rapids, IA Post Office, to The U. S. Supreme Court, dated on Monday, October 30th, 2017.

Mr. Higgens:

I, Douglas E. Haddy, do stipulate, that I did, for a fact, on the above date, send

To, The U.S Supreme Court, a formal request, asking for an "Extension of Time of 45 days to file for a Writ of Certiorari".

So, I just assumed that it was received and being processed.

On November 22, 2017, at 3:48pm, I called the supreme court clerk's office for the 1st time, to verify that it had been received. I spoke to one of the clerk's, and he asked me for "my last name", and he checked the status, and came back on the phone and said "Yes it's here, and it's just getting ready to go into review. So I thanked him, and hung up the phone. And at that point, I was feeling very confident, and up-beat, So just on a quick whim thought around December 15th, I decided to make a quick call to the clerk's office and get a quick update status. ("It's a good thing I did, because I was informed by you, Mr. Higgins, that you could find no info at all with my name. So, I went into an initial shock basis".

So I am re-submitting the exact same paperwork that was in the original documents. I did not add, nor delete any prior information in my documentations.

Thank You,

Douglas E. Haddy
