

No. _____

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

GUY BOUDREAUX, JR.--PETITIONER

VS.

STATE OF LOUISIANA--RESPONDENT(S)

ON APPLICATION TO THE
HONORABLE JUSTICE NEIL GORSUCH
FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO
UNITED STATES FIFTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEAL

GUY BOUDREAUX, JR., PRO SE
D.O.C. #: 576362
DELAUNY HUNT CORRECTIONAL CENTER
P.O. BOX 176
ST. GABRIEL, LOUISIANA 70776

JURISDICTION

The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, 28 U.S.C. § 1254 and the provisions provided for in the Rules of the Supreme Court. (Rule 13(5) and Rule 30.)

JUDGMENT TO BE REVIEWED

The conviction of the petitioner began in the St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana, Courts, but the matter at question is the ruling of the United States Court of Appeal, Fifth Circuit, dated October 26, 2017, Docket Number 17-30120. Petitioner believes that there has been an unreasonable application of the law resulting in a violation of the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

SPECIFIC REASONS FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Mr. Boudreaux comes before this Honorable Court seeking a sixty (60) day extension of time to complete his Application for Certiorari. Mr. Boudreaux is unlearned in law but has constitutional issues to be presented to this Court. He is working very hard to prepare a brief that is worthy of presentation to this Honorable Supreme Court.

Mr. Boudreaux would present that he is housed at the Elayn Hunt Correctional Center in St Gabriel, Louisiana. The Law Library is very small, outdated and has limited access. Under the best of conditions Mr. Boudreaux could gain access to the Law Library for three (3) hours each of the five nights a week. The Law Library facilities provide a very limited time where offenders can access the Law Library because of it's size. Petitioner would point out that there are only four (4) offenders at a time permitted in the Law Library. In addition to the limited access there are only outdated books and the outdated LEXIS CD available to conduct research.

There is also very limited access to persons knowledgeable in the law. There are very few Offender Counsel Substitutes that are formally trained in law. Currently, of the assigned Offender Counsel Substitutes, very few can actually meet the criteria necessary to assist the offender population, and they are always swamped with work. I have been able to get one to assist me but a little more time is needed. The Offender Counsel agrees that there are issues worthy of this Honorable Court's review.

With this in mind, the petitioner presents that he has spent all his funds on attorneys that have gotten him nowhere. Over the years he has studied the law and is finally making headway with getting finished preparing his pro se petition for certiorari and is praying that he be allowed an additional sixty (60) days to complete the filing. Again, Petitioner is unlearned in the law and is making every attempt to present his issues to this Honorable Court. Mr. Boudreaux has researched extensively and truly believes that he has constitutional violations that reach the level to be reviewed by this Court.

CONCLUSION

Mr. Boudreaux presents to this Court that the issues he wishes to raise are of the level to establish new precedent. Mr. Boudreaux prays that he be allowed the opportunity to demonstrate the substantial constitutional violations in this case.

Submitted on this the 13th day of January, 2018.
