Clerk of Court, Supreme Court of the United States

Re: June Medical Services L.L.C., et al. v. Rebekah Gee, et al. No: 18-1323

Dear Mr. Harris:

A petition for certiorari has been filed in the above-captioned case. The State intends to file a brief in opposition, which is currently due May 19, 2019.

We expect multiple amicus briefs to be filed in this matter. In addition, our office is responding to multiple new petitions being filed after certiorari was granted in Ramos v. Louisiana (18-5924) and the State's merits stage brief in Ramos is due in mid-August. Considering the complexity of the issues involved in June Medical and our office's other pending matters before the Court, the State requests an extension of sixty days in which to file its brief in opposition.

The new due date would be July 19, 2019. Counsel for the Petitioner, June Medical Services L.L.C., does not oppose this request.

JEFF LANDRY
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Elizabeth Baker Murrill
Solicitor General
