Re: Aloha Bed & Breakfast v. Diane Cervelli, et al., No. 18-451

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for Respondent William D. Hoshijo, as Executive Director of the Hawai'i Civil Rights Commission in the above-captioned matter. Respondent's brief in opposition is currently due January 2, 2019.

Respondent respectfully requests a 30-day extension of time, to and including February 1, 2019, within which to file his brief in opposition. This request is made for the following reasons:

1. Respondent's counsel is new to the case and requires additional time to become familiar with the record and prepare a response.
2. Respondent's counsel has significant professional obligations prior to the current January 2 due date for the brief in opposition, including: (1) an answering brief due December 26 in Morning Hill Foods, LLC v. Hawaii Civil Rights Commission, CAAP-18-0000573 (Haw. App. Ct.); and (2) a reply brief due December 28 in Kalima v. State of Hawaii, CAAP-18-0000068 (Haw. App. Ct.). These professional obligations, as well as counsel's personal commitments during the holidays, warrant the requested extension.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Clyde J. Wadsworth
Solicitor General
