**Counsel of Record*

Petitioner Gonzalo Holguin-Hernandez moves, pursuant to Rule 39.7, for an order appointing Philip J. Lynch, as counsel of record. In support of the motion, Petitioner submits the following information.

1. The Court granted a writ of certiorari and leave to proceed in forma pauperis on June 3, 2019.
2. Mr. Lynch presented Mr. Holguin's petition for writ of certiorari and reply in support of the petition. Mr. Lynch is a member of the bar of the Court. He has assisted as support counsel in a number of cases that have proceeded to merits consideration by the Court.
3. Mr. Lynch has sought the assistance of Jeffery L. Fisher, the co-director of the Stanford University Law School Supreme Court Litigation Clinic. Mr. Fisher has argued more than 35 cases to the Court and has been involved in dozens of others, including many cases raising criminal justice and sentencing issues. Mr. Fisher is also special counsel at O'Melveny, whose appellate department has extensive experience in cases before the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Philip J. Lynch
